SEE CHANCE TO AVERT STRIKE

Railroad Mediators View Situation with Some Degree of Optimism.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 1—There appears a possibility of heading off the crippling nationwide railroad strike set for May 11, says the federal mediation chief.

Commenting on the efforts of the national (railway) mediation board to effect a settlement between the carriers and three operating unions, Chairman Frank P. Douglass said:

"There is a possibility that we might be able to make some recommendations that are not already included in the emergency board's report which might stave off the strike."

He said he had found "a sincere disposition on the part of both sides to try to find a settlement."

Operators Meet

Railroad representatives met with the board yesterday after the three unions huddled with the conciliators on Thursday. Today separate meetings with both sides were planned by the conciliators.

"We have in mind the principal points on which they are apart and we are now trying to reconcile these points of view," Douglass told newsmen after yesterday's meeting with the carriers.

"The carriers still take the position that they will bargain within the framework of the emergency board's report. We think the atmosphere is such that progress can be made.

Big Difficulty

The "big difficulty" in the long-standing wage dispute, Douglass said, is the demand by the three unions for more pay than recommended by a presidential fact-finding board.

The brotherhoods — engineers, firemen and enginemen and switchmen—with a claimed membership of 190,000 key rail workers, sought a wage increase of 30 per cent with a minimum hike of $3 a day and changes in working rules.

The board proposed a pay boost of 15½ cents an hour, which had been accepted last fall by other rail brotherhoods. The carriers, Douglass said, refuse to grant the three unions a bigger wage hike than the other railroad workers received.

WORKERS RETURNING TO GENERAL MOTORS

By The Associated Press

DETROIT May 1 — General Motors Corp. today recalled 125,000 workers to report Monday after a week's layoff due to steel shortages.

At the same time, an additional 26,000 are scheduled for layoffs beginning Monday, and continuing through May 17.

The recent coal strike was blamed by the corporation for its lack of steel, Employes of Buick, Pontiac and Oldsmobile divisions will come back Monday, as well as workers in Fisher body fabricating plants and Chevrolet manufacturing plants.

On Monday 11,000 employes in nine Fisher body assembly plants will be paid off for a week, plus 6,000 auto assembly line workers in 11 Chevrolet assembly plants. Chevrolet truck production will not be affected.

Six Buick, Oldsmobile and Pontiac assembly plants will halt operations May 7-17, idling another 9,000 workers.

BLUE STAR MOTHERS MEET

By International News Service

MANSFIELD, O., May 1—Nearly 250 Ohio Blue Star Mothers convention delegates were to elect officers at Mansfield today. Dr. Grover E. Swoyer, pastor of Pittsburgh Trinity Lutheran church, will address a dinner climaxing the two-day conclave tonight.

County Voters To Pick Favorites on Tuesday

Candidates for state and county office and delegates to the Republican and Democratic national conventions face their first hurdle Tuesday when Ohio voters go to the polls to indicate their choice of candidates for the November elections.

Some 14,851 Marion voters are registered for the primary, with an estimated 6,000 more elegible to vote in the villages and rural districts of the county.

With only three county offices contested by Republicans and two by Democrats, total county vote is not expected to be unusually heavy. However, considerable interest is manifest in Marion county and the balance of the Eighth Congressional district in the contest between Congressman Frederick C. Smith and Robert T. Mason for the GOP nomination as the district's representatives to congress.

Although Republican presidential aspirant Harold E. Stassen's Ohio campaign for convention delegates does not enter the Eighth district, pledged to Senator Robert A. Taft for the presidential nomination, one candidate for delegate-at-large to the national convention and an alternate are pledged to the Minnesotan and appear on the county ballot. They are Carrington T. Marshall, of Columbus, former chief justice of the Ohio supreme court and Rufus S. Day, Jr., Shaker Heights attorney.

7th District Contest

A neighboring district, the Seventh, is among the 11 in which Mr. Stassen will challenge Senator Taft for 23 of the state's 53 presidential delegates. Lloyd J. Wall, of Marysville and James E. Meals, of Springfield are Stassen-pledged convention candidates running against Forrest Anders of Washington C. H., and Margaret E. Baker, of Springfield. Union county is in this district.

Other districts in which Stassen seeks delegates include the Third, Sixth, Ninth, Fourteenth, Sixteenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, Twenty-first and Twenty-second.

Few County Contests

In Marion county, there will be no contest at the primary for a majority of offices, including representative to the general assembly. Republican candidate Kenneth A. Robinson is unopposed for nomination to a second term. His opponent in November will be Otis R. McCloskey who is unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Democrats in Marion county placed no candidates in the field for probate judge, county engineer and coroner. GOP candidate for a third term as county engineer is Walter W. Johnson. Republican Edward J. Ruzzo also is unopposed for his first full term as probate judge.

Ralph Carhart is opposed for the Republican nomination for county prosecutor by Theodore P. Prericks. Carhart will be making his second try for the nomination, having lost previously to Prosecutor James E. Reed, while Frericks is a newcomer. Democratic candidate Thomas C. Fetter is unopposed.

Sheriff LeRoy Retterer in his bid for second term is opposed on the Democratic side by William Darnell. Four Republicans seek the nomination, all but one making their first try. They are William Fugitt, Otis Hindman, William Rizor and Don A. Clark defeated for the nomination four years ago.

County Commissioner Contests

Five Republicans and four Democrats are in the race for the nominations for the two seats open this fall on the board of county commissioners. Carl Lehner, seeking nomination to a second term, has opposition on the GOP side from Walter C. Bailey, James T. Johnston, Ray A. Reidenbaugh and Cletus Uhl. Democrats seeking nomination are Lester Allen, Harry Boyd and Orla Barks. Both Allen and Boyd are from the western part of the county, Allen from Bowling Green township, and Boyd from Montgomery.

At Top of State Ballots

Leading the field for the GOP nomination for governor is Governor Thomas J. Herbert, seeking a second term. His opposition is Albert E. Payne, of Springfield, in a third try for the nomination and William L. White, of Newark, a newcomer.

What promises to be the big Democratic contest is the fight between former Governor Frank J. Lausche and Ray T. Miller, both of Cleveland. Also seeking the Democratic nomination for Governor are Robert S. Cox, of Millersburg and Joseph Torok Jr., of Youngstown, beaten for the nomination two years ago by Lausche.

On County's Ballots

These candidates will face Marion county voters:

Delegate-at-large to the national convention — Republican, Ed D. Schorr, Frances P. Bolton, John W. Bricker, Clarence J. Brown, Katherine Kennedy Brown, Myers Y. Cooper, Thomas J. Herbert, Fred H. Johnson, Charles H. Jones, all pledged to Taft and Carrington T. Marshall, for Stassen. Democrat: Robert J. Bulkley, Francis W. Durbin, W. B. Gongwer, Philip P. Hanna, James W. Huffman, W. A. Julian, Jacob Kroll, Marie Dickinson Low, Frazier Reams, Granville W. Reed Jr., Marie Ryan and A. F. Whitney.

Alternate-at-large — Republican: Milo J. Warner, Kyle F. Brooks, Albertus B. Conn, Miles E. Evans, James E. Hunter, T. La-

Jewish Outposts Put Up Fierce Defense as Foes Strike Into Palestine.

By The Associated Press

JERUSALEM, May 1 — Arab nations ringing the Holy Land launched their invasion of Palestine in simultaneous pincers thrusts today, Arab and Jewish sources reported, even though the British mandate has 15 days to run.

Tel Aviv headquarters of Haganah, the Jewish militia, said Syrian and Lebanese forces invaded at dawn from the north in heavy attacks. Haganah reported Jewish outposts at three settlements within Palestine engaged in fierce fighting against invaders, using tanks and armored cars. The announcement said the attackers "are using guns, mortars and machineguns."

Unofficial sources in Cairo said the Egyptian army crossed into southern Palestine at midnight and that King Ibn Saud ordered his Saudi Arabian army to join Egyptian troops on the southern front.

Ordered by Abdullah

Arab dispatches to Damascus, Syria, asserted King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan ordered simultaneous invasion of the Holy Land by six Arab states' armies. The reports said Iraq planes flew above invading troops from Iraq, showering the soldiers with leaflets "welcoming" them into Palestine.

Fighting continued in the battle for Jerusalem, where Haganah consolidated its hold on the strategic Katamon sector in the southern part of the city.

In the Jaffa-Tel Aviv area, where the Jewish Irgun Zvai Leumi had virtually isolated the Arab port of Jaffa, the British said at least 70 Irgunists were killed when the Arabs broke a truce and the Jews returned fire. An earlier British announcement said the men were killed when Irgun broke the truce, but this report was amended later.

Some Trans-Jordan troops already were in Palestine, holding Jericho, 20 miles northeast of Jerusalem.

Council of War Held

Five Arab states held a council of war in Trans-Jordan. They were planning operations which, King Abdullah said, "will tighten the ring around the Jewish enemy," Associated Press Correspondent Daniel DeLuce reported from Amman. Army chiefs of staff of Trans-Jordan, Syria, Iraq and Lebanon were joined by Col. Hafiz Bey Bakry, representing the Egyptian general staff.

"The time when the Arabs will be masters in Palestine is near," Abdullah's statement said. "In the past there always have been disagreements and mistrust between the various Arab countries, but these have been settled by the Palestine issue."

TAFT NEARING END OF DRIVE

Outlines Defense Plan in Akron Talk; Speaks to Cleveland Club Today.

By The United Press

CLEVELAND, O., May 1—Sen. Robert A. Taft today had voiced the belief that David Lilienthal, chairman of the atomic energy commission whose reappointment for a five-year term is before the senate for approval, no longer takes a "soft view" toward communism.

Sen. Taft was near the end of a 1,000 mile, two-week campaign trip in Ohio. As he appeared before the Cleveland Civic club luncheon today. He drove here from Kent State university where he addressed a conference on UNESCO.

The Ohio senator's appearance followed by one week that of another presidential candidate, Harold E. Stassen. Sen. Taft and Mr. Stassen have engaged in a hot campaign for support of Buckeye delegates to the Republican national convention. Mr. Stassen challenged Taft for 23 of the 53 Ohio delegates. The state's presidential primary will be held May 4.

Sen. Taft will attend meetings here tomorrow and Monday night will broadcast a final appeal from Cincinnati. Mr. Stassen will broadcast his final election eve message from Cleveland.

Sen. Taft said he would still oppose the reappointment of Mr. Lilienthal and other atomic commission members for more than one-year terms because he thought the president elected in November should have the opportunity to name men in sympathy with his administration.

Asked about his original objections to Mr. Lilienthal's appointment, the senator said "Lilienthal took a soft view of communism, of which I have no doubt he no longer has."

Discusses Arms Question

Sen. Taft declined to take a stand last night at Akron on proposals which are expected to be introduced to congressional committees next week to revive the

DERBY DAY STARTS WITH HEAVY RAIN

By The Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1—Kentucky Derby day dawned to the accompaniment of heavy rain and thunder.

The downpour began around 4 a. m., and it still was raining hard three hours later. Indications were that it would continue.

The amount of rainfall thus far was not considered sufficient to affect to any appreciable extent the condition of the Churchill Downs track. Some said it would have no more effect than sprinkling the track and that the strip possibly would be lightning fast unless additional rain falls.

Six spry colts are scheduled to take off flying about 5:30 o'clock this afternoon to settle a few pressing questions for a roaring crowd of 90,000 or more.

The city is crowded, everybody waiting for the big show.

Seven names were dropped into the entry box yesterday for the $100,000 three-year-old classic, but C. A. O'Neil's Galedo bounced right out again in a late afternoon scratch, apparently because at that time chances of a muddy strip seemed remote.

This was just incidental, for a couple of half brothers from Calumet farm named Citation and Coaltown remained the major attraction. So much so, the Churchill Downs management has ruled there will be no place and show betting.

Star Jockey Arrested After Traffic Argument

By The Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 1—A charge of disorderly conduct against Jockey Eddie Arcaro was dropped this morning in city police court.

Arcaro, scheduled to ride Kentucky Derby favorite Citation this afternoon, did not appear personally. Police Judge Homer McLellen granted an attorney's motion to file away the charge. No testimony was offered.

The jockey was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Stephen Saag, who said an argument during a traffic jam at Churchill Downs race track resulted in the charge against Arcara. The Newport, Ky., jockey was released on $25 bond furnished by Roscoe Goose, Louisville horseman. A hearing was scheduled in police court before race time.

Arcaro and Jockey Arnold Kirkland, slated to ride Escadru in the Derby, were passengers in an automobile driven by jockey agent Norman Price. Saag directed Price to the side of a jammed driveway. The patrolman said he arrested Arcaro after words over the delay.

MARION CO. STUDENT ON CAPITAL PROGRAM

William G. Halby Will Go to Washington May 5.

William G. Halby, a student at Pleasant Township school and one of two winners in a recent nationwide student essay contest on the subject, "Should We Elect a Democrat or Republican as President?" will appear along with the other winner on the radio broadcast of the program, "Opinion-aire," on May 5. The program is heard over the Mutual network and will orginate from Washington, D. C.

Young Halby, 16-year-old student, and Phoebe Hathaway, 12-year-old honor students at the Albion, N. Y., high school, will join congressional members of both major political parties for the radio broadcast. Halby and Miss Hathaway were first-place winners of 5,400 entrants in the contest sponsored by "Young America" magazine.

The students will be joined on the program by Rep. Clarence Brown (R-Ohio), and Rep. Albert Gore (D-Tenn). For this particular broadcast, the "Opinion-aire" producers will present the two students first as "witnesses" in behalf of their respective presidential causes. As "witnesses" they will be cross-examined by the congressmen, after which the situation will be reversed when the students, during the broadcast, cross-examine the two congressmen.

William Halby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Halby of the Somerlot-Hoffman road south of Marion.

Fans Send Orchids; Breneman Rites Today

By The Associated Press

GLENDALE, Calif., May 1 — Orchids and other flowers from fans arrived hours ahead of funeral services scheduled for 11 a. m. today (Pacific Daylight Saving Time) for Tom Breneman, nationally-popular radio master of ceremonies.

Breneman made it a custom to award an orchid daily to the eldest guest at his "Breakfast in Hollywood" broadcast — usually a woman in her 80's.

Breneman, 47, died Wednesday at his Encino home, shortly before he was to leave for the program. The fans' floral tributes came from as far as Memphis, Tenn., and Augusta, Ga.

An outpouring of movie and radio stars was expected for the rites in the Church of the Recessional at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

Garry Moore will take over as master of ceremonies on the Breneman broadcast starting next Monday, the American Broadcasting Co. announced. Moore also will retain his job as master of ceremonies on the "Take It or Leave It" Sunday broadcast.

Breneman left an estate of about $250,000, his lawyers disclosed. Pending filing of the will, his widow, Mrs. Billie Dunne Breneman was named special administratrix. She is the will's chief beneficiary.

Burglars Carry Away Safe, $6,500 in Tiffin

By The United Press

TIFFIN, O., May 1—Burglars broke into the Pastime cigar store early today and carried off a safe containing $6,500.

The theft from the store, owned by Sam Spino, was discovered at 3 a. m. by William Gardner, night attendant at a restaurant next door. Gardner noticed that the door of the store was smashed and notified police.

The looted safe was found a short distance south of here by sheriff's deputies.

VICTIM OF BURNS SHOWS IMPROVEMENT

Police Report Offers of Assistance for Marion Sisters.

The condition of Miss Dorothy Reichert, 57, who is in City hospital for treatment of first and second degree burns of the hands and face suffered in the fire which destroyed the North State street dwelling she occupied with her sister was reported as "fairly good" by hospital attendants this morning. She is reported to have passed a "fairly peaceful" night attendants added.

Police headquarters reported this morning that already some response had been received there to the joint appeal issued yesterday by Police Chief Marks and Fire Chief Sifritt for the assistance of the sisters, who lost all of their belongings in the fire which destroyed their home yesterday morning.

No offers of donations have yet been received at fire department headquarters to his knowledge a department spokesman said. Chief Owen A. Sifritt could not be reached this morning for comment as to whether he had received any offers of donations.

CUTS IN TAX ON PAY BEGIN

Reductions on Income Levies Give Boost to 50,000,000 American Earners.

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, May 1—The new federal income tax cut went into effect today, giving almost 50,000,000 Americans a boost in take-home pay.

From now on the government will take a smaller bite out of the paychecks of those on the "pay-as-you-go" withholding system. This is the first noticeable effect on the $4,800,000,000 income tax reduction voted by congress early this month over President Truman's veto.

Everybody who pays a federal income tax will get some benefit. About 7,400,000 of the smaller taxpayers will go off the tax rolls altogether.

The tax cut applies to paychecks you get after today. It doesn't make any difference when the money was actually earned. It's the date on the check that counts.

For example, a married man with two children who makes $50-a-week has had $1.30 taken out of his check for federal income tax. But from now on there will be no deduction. He's off the tax rolls entirely.

Taxpayers' Credit

Take the case of a man with a wife and two children who makes $100-a-week. In the past, he has had $10.50 withheld from his paycheck. But in the future he'll lose only $7.70.

The cut in "pay-as-you-go" reductions is worked out so as to give taxpayers credit for both the percentage slash and the increased personal exemptions provided by the new law. Exemptions were raised from the present $500 to $800 a person. Tax levies were reduced from 12.0 per cent in the low brackets to 5 per cent in the higher brackets.

Three Events To Mark Music Week Observance in Marion

Three outstanding musical events will mark the observance of National Music Week here. They are the annual spring concert sponsored by the Marion Civic chorus Sunday, the appearance of the St. Louis Sinfonietta on Tuesday night and a musical tea Sunday afternoon, May 9, at which time the Ariel Ladies Sextette of Columbus will be special guests.

The spring concert will be held at 8 p. m. Sunday in the First Presbyterian church and will be open to the public without charge. The program by the St. Louis Sinfonietta will be presented at the Palace theater and will mark the close of the 1947-48 season sponsored by the Marion Concert association. The Ariel Ladies Sextette will be guests at the tea to be held at the Marion Country club.

Mrs. Wills Chairman

Mrs. Lewis Wills is chairman for the week's activities. Mrs. Harold K. Mouser is chairman for the musical tea and assisting are Mrs. David W. Evans, co-chairman, and members of the Marion Life Member chapter of the Federation of Music Clubs, of which Mrs. James C. Woods is president.

Schools will observe the week with special musical activities and service clubs and other organizations will center their programs on music. Special music in churches also will be featured.

Appearing with the Sinfonietta will be a Sascha Gorodnitzki, pianist who made his debut with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra. He has the distinctive record of more than 60 New York engagements and in addition has appeared as soloist with the nation's leading orchestra.

Sisters In Sextette

The "Ariel Ladies Sextette" is composed of six sisters whose ages range from 74 to 84. They recently returned to the limelight when they appeared on a broadcast of the nationwide radio show, "We The People," after being rediscovered. The sisters, reared at Delaware, were in the prime of their singing career back in the 90's, singing in lyceum and chautauqua engagements with their public appearances numbering approximately 1,700. They have a niece living here, Mrs. Wilfred Schweinfurth of 501 Cherry street.

A display of original manuscripts will be on display in the downtown district during the week.

A message in commendation of national music week observance has been issued by President Truman, and proclamations setting aside the week of May 2 to 9 for the event have been issued by Gov. Herbert and Marion Mayor Harry L. Dowler

BAR ASSOCIATION STUDIES FEE RATES

New Minimum Schedule Considered for Services.

The Marion County Bar association is considering adoption of a new minimum fee schedule, according to discussion held at an association meeting Thursday night in the Marion Club room at the Hotel Harding.

Attorney Russell Wilhelm, chairman of the association's committee on the proposed overhauling of the entire schedule of fees in effect here at the present time, led the discussions, chief topic to come before the meeting.

The new schedule which would embrace a hike in fees, reported to be the first since 1923, will be patterned after similar schedules set up by other bar associations in the state. Most have already introduced new fee schedules, it was said.

Also under discussion were new common pleas court rules and proposed legislation affecting the probate court. County Association President Charles Harmon presided at the meeting with 37 members attending.

428 CHILDREN IN PRE-SCHOOL CLINICS

Dr. Weinbaum Reports on Examination of Youngsters.

Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner reported today that a total of 428 children were examined in the annual free pre-school clinics which were completed yesterday. Last year a total of 421 children were examined the commissioner said.

Few serious physical defects were discovered among the children examined, the commissioner said. The defects appearing in the greatest frequency being dental defects and abnormal tonsils with a few hernias. The recommendation that every pre school child be vaccinated for smallpox was strongly urged by Dr. Weinbaum.

Thanks to the Marion Academy of Medicine, Marion County Dental Society, Parent Teachers Association and the city school system were extended by the health commissioner today for their fine spirit of cooperation which made possible the success of the pre-school clinics. All medical, dental, and nursing services employed in the clinics were donated, Dr. Weinbaum said.

The breakdown of children examined by schools is as follows: Forest Lawn 19, George Washington 35, Glenwood 42, Greenwood 37, Mark 43, North Main 22, Oak 35, Oakland Heights 53, Olney 26, Pearl 59, Silver 27, and St. Mary 30.

Agency Director Talks At Insurance Meeting

William R. Davis of Louisville, Ky., director of agencies of the Commonwealth Life Insurance Co., was guest speaker at the monthly sales meeting of Commonwealth's central Ohio agency held Thursday afternoon at the company's offices at 197 East Center street. Mr. Davis was introduced to the 14 agency representatives in attendance by Carson J. Cook, central Ohio agency manager.

Mr. Davis addressed the group on work of an insurance agent and the life insurance market as it exists at present. He announced the start of the eight weeks sales contest of the central Ohio agency which begins today and will end in the celebration of the local agency's third anniversary July 1. Following the meeting agents were guests at a dinner at Hotel Harding.

Fourteen agents working from the Marion office represent the company in Coshocton, Knox, Richland, Delaware, Union, Morrow, Marion, Crawford, Wyandot and Ashland counties.

Report of Car Theft Brings Owner's Arrest

James William Hinniger, 32, of Lawrence street was jailed by police at 1:14 a. m. today on a charge of intoxication after he called police to the Black Forest Grill and told them his car had been stolen.

Suspecting his story might not be an exact statement of existing circumstances because of his dishevelled appearance and conflicting elements in his story, police lodged him in city jail.

A short while later while answering another call police discovered a car overturned in a field on the Gracely farm at the end of Bennett street. A check of the license number revealed the car to be that of Hinniger. He was fined $10 and costs on the intoxication charge by Judge Hazen this morning.

The first recent arrest on charges of intoxication and panhandling was made at 1:21 p. m. yesterday by city police at the court house when Walker Charles Crisp, 56, no address, was arrested and lodged in city jail on that charge. He was fined $25 and costs on the charge by Judge Hazen this morning and returned to city jail.

shipment from this country of arms to any nation whose freedom is vital to the United States.

He said, however, that shipment of arms could not be considered separately but "the whole problem of such aid, military alliances, and lend lease will be wrapped up into one problem."

The senator called for "defense which will make this country substantially safe without destroying the possibilty of the improvement of civilian life." He lifted a three-point plan to obtain such a defense:

1. Complete integration of an armed forces, including a completely efficient and coldly practical intelligence service which could tell us the possible attack that we must plan to meet.

2. Ample funds for research because it is essential that the American scientist be ahead of the scientists of every other nation. Money can be wasted in scientific research but in general the cost is cheap compared to other expenditures, he said.

3. An air force that gives us complete control of the air.

Sen. Taft said election of a GOP president this year would give the country "a consistent policy, one which puts, first, the liberty of the American people, second, the peace of the world, third, the improvement of the economic welfare of our own people and their protection against economic disaster."

"The first line of national defense," Sen. Taft said, "consists of keeping the peace. So that there may be no need to test the adequacy of our defense forces. We must avoid every foreign policy and strategic policy which takes a provocative stand on every controversial issue which may arise anywhere in the world."

The senator said aid to foreign nations must be approached with "discretion and caution" and confined to aid that will increase foreign production, employment, and stability. He warned against following a policy that might find the country exhausted in case of war.

Once again, amid a world of chaos, we Americans have the opportunity to go to the polls, in a primary election, and cast a free ballot for the candidates we feel best fitted to represent our party in the November election.
This primary campaign has been hard work, but also an enjoyable experience for me. Many of my friends have worked earnestly in my behalf, my opponents have been gentlemen in the conduct of their campaign, so for all this I want to express to each and every one a most sincere and hearty thank you.

IN CONCERT TUESDAY. The St. Louis Sinfonietta, above, will be heard in a program Tuesday night at the Palace theater as the last in the 1947-48 series of concerts sponsored by the Marion Concert Association. The Sinfonietta began its career in 1937 with but a single tour date which can now be compared to its annual bookings which require traveling thousand of miles. Its distinguished conductor, Paul Schreiber, a native of St. Louis, is a brilliant and extremely musical interpreter of his programs and conducts with a delicate sense of balance and a constant consideration for the true meaning of the composer.

Schools Hold Music Festival in Galion

Special to The Star

GALION, May 1—Junior High school gymnasium resounded with a volume of music Friday night as 242 young musicians from six school orchestras appeared for the Northern Ohio league orchestra festival.

Each orchestra was presented by its director for one or more numbers, also the massed orchestra of 243 students played six numbers, each director taking his turn at conducting one.

The program opened with the Willard High school orchestra playing two numbers, directed by Agnes Moore, then the Upper Sandusky group, directed by C. W. Assenheimer played two. The Galion High school group was conducted by F. A. W. Liddell for three selections; Norwalk High school musicians were directed by R. P. Laycock for two; Lucille Morrow. Pennington directed the Crestline orchestra in two numbers, and two were played by the Bellevue High school orchestra, directed by Carl Lenz.

The musicians arrived in Galion early. With school superintendents, principals, and music supervisors, the group had supper at the Junior school; it was served by the Senior High P.-T.A. with Mrs. Albert Ritzhaupt as general chairman.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

"YOU can do plenty," Dicky assured Charlie Kent when we both had greeted him warmly. "Is your taxi ready to start as usual?"

"All she needs is a touch to her wings, and she's off," the driver answered with the touch of exuberance which does not annoy the staidest of his passengers, because of his competence, his honesty and his faithful attendance to his duties in all weathers.

"Then sit down while Mrs. Graham tells you what she wants," my husband said, and Charlie Kent grinned at me as he sat down in the place beside me which Dicky had indicated.

"If it's something Mrs. Graham wants, it's sure to be exciting, anyway," he said with an expectant look in his eyes.

"I'm afraid you won't call this very exciting," I told him. "Do you know Kennedy the florist on that side road about half a mile before we get into Southampton?"

"Do I know Kennedy?" Charlie repeated with a chuckle. "I wish I had a dollar for every bunch of flowers I've delivered for him. I have a standing order from him. Every time he has flowers for Bridgehampton or Sag Harbor, and his own trucks are busy somewhere else, he calls me, and I go over and get them."

"That must cut into his profits," Dicky commented idly.

"Don't worry about any florist's profits these days," Charlie answered sagely. "But Kennedy's better than a lot of them, and there's one thing, he gives good value for his money. He's the best in this end of the island, although he isn't the cheapest.

"His flowers are worth the extra money," I said. "They're always wonderful."

"That's what a lot of folks think around here," Charlie said. "He'd be getting rich, Kennedy would, if he didn't give so many flowers away.

"What do you mean?" I asked, startled, and Charlie looked embarrassed.

"Maybe I'm getting out something I shouldn't," he said, "but lots of folks know about it. If there's anybody dies, or is sick, and their folks haven't money, and their friends haven't either, Kennedy sees that flowers go over as long as there's need."

"How wonderful!" I said, and then Dicky's dry cough signaled me that I would better stop gossiping, and get down to business.

"Here is what I want you to do, Charlie," I said. "I want you to take your taxi, drive down to Kennedy's as fast as you can—we'll be right behind you — and ring his doorbell. When he comes to the door, ask him to put some clothing on as quickly as possible, and come out to the car to see me. Say it's urgent. He'll understand. He helped my father once on a problem. While you're doing that, Joe will be turning our car around so it will be headed for the city. But you can come back here as soon as you've brought him over to our car."

There was no exuberance in him now. He was all business as he asked quietly: "Is that all?"

"Yes, that is all," I answered, and he rose abruptly.

"Then I'll be shoving my boat out," he said, and went to the front of the car.

"You trailing me?" he asked.

"That's right, Pal," Joe said. "And make it as snappy as you can. We're in a hurry tonight."

"Are you telling me" Charlie retorted, as he went through the door. Joe's speech evidently had put him on his mettle, for in an incredibly short time, his taxi slid away from the back door of the garage—I was sure his efficient wife, Bertha, was closing it after him—and into the road. He did not give even a wave of the hand to Joe, but sent his taxi down the road at a pace that Joe, with the big armored car could not beat.

In fact, Joe was nearly half a block behind when Charlie turned into the Kennedy driveway. But Charlie did not wait to savor his triumph. The lights of our big car outlined his figure as he jumped from the taxi, and ran to the Kennedy front door.

"The little squirt," Joe said in rueful amusement. "He sure put it over me, that time."

But all my attention was focused on Charlie, who patiently was ringing the doorbell. Suppose Kennedy should not be at home! I knew no other member of the family.

EMPTY CATTLE LOTS MIRROR CORN FAILURE

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO May 1—Empty cattle lots on the mid-western landscape today a ghostly reminder of last summer's short corn crop. They promise a sad warning to people who like to eat meat.

Market analysts said today the empty feed lots mean a tremendous reduction in meat production, starting in about 30 days.

At this time of year mid-western farms normally are jammed with cattle undergoing a luscious grain diet prior to being shipped to market. It's that grain mostly corn, which puts weight on the animals to provide tasty meat. But it isn't that way this year.

H J Gramlich agricultural agent of the Chicago and Northwestern railway said many cattle feeders have temporarily folded up.

"In a three-mile strip paralleling our line west of the Omaha stock yards where normally several hundred thousand cattle are fattened each year there does not now appear to be a single head," Gramlich said.

Mark Pickell secretary of the Corn Belt Livestock Feeders association was equally pessimistic.

In a trip through southern Illinois he said "I stopped at a farm where I never have seen less than 400 cattle on feed. The feed lot gates were open. Not a head was in there."

H M Conway market analyst for the National Livestock Producers association, said "Cattle feeders are not refilling their feed lots. They are putting in about 50 per cent of the number which went in last year. It means a tremendous reduction in meat production starting in about 30 days."

While last year's short corn crop was held partly to blame for the situation by Conway he said that a decline in cattle prices since the start of the year had thrown a scare into cattle feeders.

Your Good Health

By DR. HERMAN N BUNDESEN

Human Brain Is Very Much Like Radio Station

Few of us realize it, but we all have our own private radio broadcasting stations. The brain — station YOU — is constantly sending out waves of electrical energy in very much the same way that a broadcasting station transmits sound waves.

Just as your radio set at home can pick up broadcasts so we now have an instrument called the electro-encephalograph, which can record the waves from the human brain and make a tracing of them. This has been found extremely helpful in establishing the correct diagnosis of certain mental and nervous disturbances. Of course it requires expert knowledge to interpret these tracings after they have been made.

In making the tracing the patient either lies or sits relaxed with the eyes closed. Drowsiness must be avoided since sleep produces changes in the waves which may be difficult to distinguish from those produced by abnormal conditions.

The patient should breathe briskly and deeply for about three minutes since this will help to bring out any abnormalities in the brain waves. However the use of such drugs as sedatives or quieting preparations may mask abnormal waves.

It has been found that abnormal waves will occur in about nine out of ten persons who are suffering from epilepsy a condition in which there is loss of consciousness sometimes accompanied by convulsions or spasms.

It has also been noted that the parents or near relatives of epileptics frequently have abnormal brain waves. For this reason it has been suggested that patients with such abnormal brain waves may well avoid having children.

Attacks of epilepsy may also be differentiated from hysteria by means of the brain waves. In hysteria, a condition in which there is a variety of symptoms caused by mental strain, abnormal waves do not occur. In narcolepsy, however, a condition in which the patient suffers from excessive sleepiness the brain waves are abnormal.

Now and then migraine headaches may be due to changes in the brain which can be detected by electrical tracing of the brain waves. It is also possible to determine in some cases just where a tumor growth in the brain is located by means of the electroencephalograph. Changes in personality may follow brain inflammation and in choreas or St Vitus Dance disturbances of the electrical waves from the brain occur. Electroencephalograms may also be helpful in making such diagnoses.

Questions and Answers

A J Which is the most satisfactory treatment of varicose veins—operations or injection?

A Both methods are satisfactory depending upon the condition present. The injection treatment serves in most cases. A combination of the two may be required in some instances.

Attending will be members from the Daughters of Isabella, St Mary Sewing Circle, Tuesday Study Club, Catholic Ladies of Columbus and St Mary Altar society.

More than 1,000 women from the various parishes of the diocese are expected to attend the meeting to be held at 3 o'clock in the Mt. Vernon Public school auditorium. Guest speaker will be Miss Ruth Craver, executive secretary of the National Council of Catholic Women. During the summer of 1947 Miss Craver represented the NCCW at the Congress of International Union of Catholic Women's Leagues in Rome and later visited displaced persons camps in Germany as an observer.

The conference will close with greetings from the Most Rev Michael J Ready D D bishop of Columbus after which the assembly will adjourn to St Vincent de Paul parish grounds where outdoor benediction of the Blessed Sacrament will be given.

At the social hour, members of the following all the women will be guests of the parish courts.

Ohio Will Settle the Issue

THE debate between Senator Taft and Harold Stassen will help Ohio Republicans decide the key issue in the 1948 presidential election.

The Ohio presidential primary next Tuesday will be a vote, in effect, on whether the direction taken by national government under the New Deal will be changed to the direction of Senator Taft's leadership in the U.S. senate.

His program, already laid down in law, is well-rounded and carefully planned to insure the greatest possible liberty for individuals and the greatest possible restraint on concentration of authority in Washington.

Senator Taft has shown what he would do in the Taft-Hartley act, which restores to working people and to the economic system as a whole the equality of rights which has been the cornerstone of American liberty.

He is opposed to one-sidedness in government. He is opposed to the appeasement of pressure blocs for the sake of wheedling votes. He denies the dairy bloc the right to impose an inequitable tax on margarine at the expense of consumers. He denies the Washington real estate lobby the right to impose bad living conditions on persons at the bottom of the economic scale. He is committed in everything he has done and said to equality under a government law.

He is the best qualified of the Republicans seeking the party's presidential nomination—best qualified because he has had responsibility as the party's legislative leader. He is the only candidate for the nomination who has had actual training to accept party leadership next November. He knows the issues. He knows the national government. He is asking for approval of things that he actually has done, not of glib promises of things he might like to do.

Ohio Republicans have had the benefit of a complete and up-to-date review of his political principles. The nation has had the same benefit; the campaign he has carried on in this state has been watched closely throughout the country. It has been evident to all observers that Ohio was holding a preview of the national election.

The real issue has been threshed out here. It is the issue between the kind of Republicanism Senator Taft believes in and the watered-down and doctored-up versions of second-guessers angling for the support of what's left of the spend-and-spend, elect-and-elect movement that rode high, wide and handsome under the New Deal.

The next president of the United States will be a Republican. He should be the ablest Republican available, and the ablest is Robert A. Taft. Ohio Republicans should send him the party's nominating convention with such a thumping vote of confidence that his Ohio delegates and the delegates from all other states will see their duty clearly and nominate the man who is best qualified to be the next president of the United States—Senator Taft of Ohio.

Lend-Lease Revival

RUMORS of lend-lease revival, to give military aid to western Europe, are hard to understand.

What would be the difference between a new lend-lease program and the Marshall plan? Both would be for the benefit of governments struggling to build up enough internal security to stave off the Kremlin-bossed conspirators hoping to foist off state dictatorships on all helpless people.

During wartime, lend-lease included war materials, industrial machinery, commodities and services. It was a pooling of resources in a battle of production—a way to distribute American wealth abroad without piling up money debts. About 50 billion dollars' worth of material was sent out of the United States under lend-lease.

That's why it would be hard to see any difference between things sent abroad in peacetime under one plan or another, whether the plan might be called UNRRA, Truman doctrine, Marshall plan or lend-lease. The battle of production is still being fought. The materials must still come from the only country able to produce a surplus—the United States.

The purposes of all aid plans are the same—to offset the Kremlin's drive to dominate weak societies by setting up Communist dictatorships over them. The effects of all aid plans are the same—to draw on the wealth of the United States to strengthen weak societies threatened with domination by Russia.

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Taft and Stassen—Comparing Their Records.

THE public used to judge a man on his record. By record was meant his public acts, his achievements, his accomplishments, with a background of his private life to indicate character. His speeches were secondary to character. And while consistency may be little better than stubbornness, inconsistency often is the mark of a baffled mind, a confused personality, an over-anxiety to achieve position without too great regard for principle.

Since 1932, those guides to the selection of public officials have not been as popular as heretofore. The word, glamour, has in many minds become more popular than the record of accomplishment. Glamour has replaced character. Perhaps that is why the gossip columnists have attained to such an importance in journalism, they glamorize the trivial and pander to a lust for egalitarianism, that is, leveling our society at the lowest possible level without absolutely outraging moral opinion to which they give not obeisance but a passing nod.

SOKOLSKY

Senator Robert A. Taft is to be judged by his leadership of the Republican party in congress. He has made himself responsible for a labor bill, a health bill, an education bill, a housing bill. He has opposed UMT, he has supported tax reduction without imperiling the national defense. His leadership has required him to take a positive stand on every public measure in congress, both parties have come to respect him as possessing intellectual integrity and legislative capacity.

Not a Van Johnson

That he lacks glamour is admitted even by his staunchest supporters. He could not compete in that sphere with Van Johnson or Clark Gable. He is not an actor not a robot, repeating platitudes composed by other minds. He does not shake hands as though that were his most important accomplishment. He does not wear an eternal smirk. If these are requirements for the presidency, Bob Taft is wanting. Lana Turner probably would fill all these requirements, if no making of speeches.

My first impression of Harold Stassen was way back when he proposed limited sovereignty for the United States. It was an immature idea, highly emotional, projected without regard to the dangers facing this country from its principal enemy, Soviet Russia, that had been its enemy since 1917 with no interludes. True, others made the same error, but no matter what has happened since 1917, I, as one citizen, can never respect the mentality that produced so sophomoric a conception of history. Those who will not do the home work necessary to make themselves familiar with public problems, or who sacrifice the public god for their private ambitions, ought to be opposed.

Some Stassen Suggestions

Then came Stassen's proposals for a world parliament which, while it read like a solon came to life, indicated no realistic approach to major problems. For instance, he desired that the United Nations be authorized

"To administer the key international airports and airways of the world.

"To administer the gateways to the seas . . .

"To increase the literacy and improve the health of the people of the world."

Just imagine where we should be today if the United Nations controlled the air and the seas! Stassen could say that he had no idea at the time that the Russians would turn out to be so bad and in his interview with Stalin, he as much as said so, he finding Stalin almost delectable. But I, as a citizen, am unwilling to vote for anyone for president who misunderstood the well-documented and thoroughly canvassed Russian position. Ignorance may be bliss but it has no place in the presidency.

Stassen's One Occupation

While Taft was standing up in senate for public principle, Stassen declined to come to the senate but devoted himself to the sole task of running for the presidency. He assumed no public responsibility, except at the San Francisco conference where he was outshone by Arthur Vandenberg and John Foster Dulles, who assumed aggressive leadership on behalf of his party. For nearly three years he has had no occupation except running for the presidency, no calling except the

Mother Wants Just You

By Frank Tripp

THIS is no quarrel with the idea of Mother's day and all for which it stands. It is just to ask why not every day mother's day? Who can remember any day his mother ceased to care for him?

There may be folks who need a red letter on the calendar to make them think of mother. They don't happen to be among my friends. It's swell of course for all of us to think a little more about mother on a special day. It prompted me to write a piece, perhaps to lend your reverie along with mine. Perhaps somewhere to reach a thoughtless one who, in his selfish world of rush, may leave an anxious mother broken-hearted Sunday next.

TRIPP

Of course, I had the world's most wonderful mother. So have you. This sublime paradox, about which men never quarrel: that everybody's mother is the greatest woman in the world, is mortals' sovereign tribute to motherhood.

I cannot write about your mother so I proudly write of mine. Next to the most precious love and care that human could bestow, I remember best my mother's homely insight and her sparkling wit. Aphorism was her forte.

Among her sayings was one garnered from the farm one she oft applied to those who wring their hands and make great show of grief. 'Twas blunt, but oh how often true—"a bawling calf soon forgets its mother."

It's not our tears for mother's loss that prove our reverence for her. It is what we do for mother in her living days that best bespeaks our love. Even that's vainglorious. It's paying little on the biggest debt we owe, just to proclaim affection for the woman who gave us life and nursed us to our strength. Love of mother is inborn. It seems to be our gratitude that needs be whet.

I never quite believed the man who says he harbors not a single regret; that he did everything he could have done for his mother. While my mother lived I thought that too, but now I can think of so many things I wish I had done. If only it had not seemed that mother would forever be—that there'd be time, that some day I'd do this or that.

And then one day my mother was gone. Her lips were sealed, her eyes were closed. Her crippled hands would stroke my greying brow no more. If that day has not come to you, go now and clean the slate. Wipe from it every put-off good intent. Go give to mother everything you know her due.

Best thing to do is give yourself to mother whilst she lives. Mother wants that most of all. For when she's gone, no matter what the palace you have built for her, no matter what the comfort you provide her now, you'll most regret the time you could have spent in her embrace—and didn't.

We experience only once this transcendent loss. When that time comes neither anguish, show, nor days we set apart can erase the contrite memory of things we failed to do for mother.

So let's make every day Mother's day.

Call for Courtesy

"Everyone gets annoyed occasionally at the general dumbness of people. But on second thought," observes the Imperial magazine, "he should realize that if people were smarter it would be harder to make a living, because the competition would be more intelligent. There would be fewer opportunities to nose out and utilize.

"What really causes annoyance are the rude manners and lack of consideration for others that are so prevalent. This actually comes down to a matter of bad taste. Taste is a subject that used to be taught at home and school.

"In recent years, parents and teachers have not thought it worth while to emphasize good taste sufficiently. The idea seemed to be to let the children run wild and form what habits they like. Perhaps this policy has now run its course and manners will once again be emphasized. Few people seem to realize how important manners are in impressing others favorably."

A Crystal Ball To a Foul One

Russian glass workers have presented Premier Stalin with a crystal ball.

Could that be a hint, maybe, that Joe's vision is slipping?

Personally I am surprised to learn Stalin goes in for crystal gazing. I didn't think he believed in signs, including NO TRESPassing ones.

Still, if Joe really has an interest in the occult, why don't we make him a May Day gift of this nation's foremost mystic?

It would be good red-dance of Henry.

For, as far as we're concerned, as a prophet, Wallace is a total loss.

Daily Bible Thought

It is cruel to the one who yields to it and to the object of wrath as well. We should learn to control wrath and use only to destroy evil and injustice.—Ps. 37 f. "Wrath is cruel."

It's the Humidity

Too rapid heat transfer makes even heavy wool clothing feel inadequate. That distressing experience often comes on cold days when the humidity is high. The reason is that particles of water vapor move more rapidly through woolen tangles than molecules of oxygen and nitrogen do, and when they move they carry away body warmth. The remedy: when the chill is accompanied by dampness wear a raincoat over the topcoat, even if it's not raining.—OSU Science and Appliance.

A Break in the Log Jam

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, May 1, 1938.

The Harding High school orchestra played to an audience of approximately 400 at Edison auditorium as the public schools formally opened observance of national music week.

Robert W. Byrd, city editor, and W. T. Buchanan, news editor of The Marion Star, attended a meeting of the Blue Pencil club, an organization of Ohio newspaper editors, held at Columbus.

Thirty-seven members of Girl Reserves of Harding High school and Edison Junior High school were presented rings in recognition of their meeting high standards of the organization, in a ceremony held at Central Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Bain and family of Sheridan road attended the golden wedding anniversary celebration of Mrs. Bain's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hoover at West Unity, O.

Founder's day was combined with the observance of Mother's day when Iota Alpha chapter, Pi Omicron National sorority, met for dinner at Ringer's Inn.

Mrs. Ellen M. Lundergan, 78, died at her home on North Prospect street.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Tuesday, May 1, 1928.

Expressing the belief the measure contained too many riders and too much "pork," President Coolidge indicated that he would veto the Jones-Reid flood control bill.

John T. Caulfield was named superintendent of the Marion Steam Shovel Co., succeeding Ray R. King, who resigned.

Dr. B. D. Osborn of Waldo, Dr. C. L. Baker of Kirkpatrick, Dr. E. L. Brady and Dr. H. K. Mouser left for Cincinnati to attend the eighty-second annual convention of the Ohio State Medical association.

Albert J. St. Germain, 72, died suddenly of a heart attack at his home on West Mark street.

Mrs. C. A. Thomas was re-elected president at a meeting of the Mark Street Community club.

M. Waddell, president of the Marion Building, Savings and Loan Co., was honored at a family dinner at his home on East Center street in celebration of his 75th birthday anniversary.

Mrs. E. H. Morgan of South Greenwood street was in Cleveland attending the Parent-Teacher association convention.

Cloak and Dagger

By Stewart Alsop

ROME

IN THE comfortably distant United States, it is not easy to grasp the fierceness of the contest between the Soviet Union and the western world. And for this very reason, it is hard to imagine how very close we have just come, and may probably come again, to the slippery brink of catastrophe. Both these points are illustrated by three curious recent episodes here, which are regarded as fully authenticated by the highest authority.

ALSOP

The first may be described as "the mystery of the Russian furs." Recently the Soviet embassy in Rome approached the Italian ministry of foreign trade with a seemingly innocuous request. Permission was asked, and cheerfully granted, for shipment to Rome of a load of Russian furs to adorn the 20-odd ladies of the embassy staff. Subsequently, however, Foreign Trade Minister Cesare Merzagora was astonished to discover that the Soviets intended to import just short of a ton of furs. This would have sufficed to cover all the embassy ladies in several thicknesses of sable, with enough left over to ermine-line the embassy walls.

To seasoned observers in Italy—especially those with access to intelligence reports—this was not especially mysterious. The ton of furs was of course really intended for sale on the black market, for foreign exchange with which to finance Soviet agents and the Italian Communist party. This sort of thing was going on for a long time. The fur fraud was only significant because it was so transparent, which suggests that the Soviet foreign exchange famine must be very acute indeed.

Dollar Supply Ample

The second episode may be described as "the mystery of the black market." Prior to the election, near panic reigned in some circles here. Many of the rich prepared to flee the country, and others actually fled. Normally, when the rich pack up to run away, there is a tremendous boom in every foreign currency. Instead, the dollar market remained absolutely stable. This was because the demand of the rich for dollars to carry away with them was more than met by the supply of dollars sent into Italy to finance the Communist underground.

The third episode may be called "the mystery of the disgruntled partisans." On March 20 and 21, large groups of Communist ex-partisans, "activists" and "agit-props" started for the hills, especially in Piedmont and in the area around Florence. Preparations for direct action were obviously on foot. Yet the fighting men of the underground had hardly arrived at their assembly points when, strangely, and despite the disgruntlement of many of the younger hotheads, they began to trickle home. The orders had been changed. By March 24, almost all were out of the hills again.

Easily Explained

The explanation of this odd, in-again, out-again movement is only too apparent. It is now hardly doubted that at least two alternative, Kremlin - approved plans for Italy had been drawn up, and that one plan called for direct action either before, during or immediately after the election. Either the wrong orders were given, and the wrong plan set in motion; or Plan B was substituted for Plan A at the last moment. Thus the partisan movement to assembly points began, only to be halted.

How this was done is also known. The Kremlin's order to halt was almost certainly transmitted through the Soviet embassy, to the Italian Communist leader, Palmiro Togliatti, both before and after the elections. According to an undoubted source, Togliatti often visited the Soviet embassy on several occasions, and remained through the night at least twice.

Important lessons may be drawn from these three episodes. In the first place, however many millions of dollars the Soviet used in the underground effort in Italy, the sum was trivial compared to the billions more publicly poured in by the United States. Relatively speaking, the Soviets get a lot more political return for a lot less cash. But this is because misery and social unrest give the Soviets their chance. Remove the causes, and the chance will be removed also.

Soviet Crystal Sets

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW—The crystal detector receiving set is back again in the Soviet Union.

Many U. S. boys have made crystal radio receivers. But there are Russian farms without electricity and it is impossible to manufacture tube sets in a few years sufficient to put one in every home here. So Soviet inventors have turned to the same principle as the "one you made yourself." But it has some improvements which make it almost unrecognizable.

New sets have a "constant" crystal which does not require continual readjustment. And the design has been so improved that some models use a small loud speaker. The range is also broader.

Young amateur radio enthusiasts in Pioneer clubs and Komsomol clubs manufacture the sets.

Nobody here envisions crystal sets as a permanent substitute for radios using tubes. But the local attitude is that it will do until it is possible to meet the demand for tube sets.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Letters for Special Delivery

MR. C. J. FLETCHER,
Commissioner of Motor Vehicle,
State of New York

DEAR SIR:

I noticed a recent speech by you to a safety council in which you came out for greater control of pedestrians as necessary to cutting down auto accidents. I see what you mean. The way pedestrians are tearing around at top speed no automobile is safe, eh?

It is tough driving an auto these days on account of the streets are so full of reckless walkers, like you say. A car never knows when it is going to get hit. A driver is apt to be piloting his sedan out of a side street when —sock!—some careless pedestrian rams right into him!

PHILLIPS

I take it that you think if these people who insist on going around town on foot would be reasonable and keep themselves under control it would be O.K. for them to use the streets, but once a community lets them operate in a pair of shoes they think they own the roads.

* * *

Only today I was driving my uncle's ten-ton truck out of an alley (on the red light) when a woman pushing a baby carriage came right at me full speed with no horn or anything and bang goes my right fender. The baby carriage has no brakes and does not dim its lights. What is worse, I find the baby has no road licence and the mother is so ignorant she thinks a green light gives her some protection. What are you going to do with a pedestrian like that?

A few days ago I saw an old lady on her way home from the fruit store with a bag of apples and what does she do? Just because she has the light with her she starts to cross the street. So what happens? She crashes into a taxicab speeding along minding its own business. (She was not even a registered apple bag carrier.) And you take the buses, commissioner: Do pedestrians give them a decent break? No. While a bus driver is carefully feeling his way down a street at 60 per hour, what are pedestrians doing? Dashing out at him from all directions. There ought to be a law. No vehicle is safe on the streets today.

By all means press this drive for a law to control pedestrians before more automobiles get hurt. Do not accept any halfway measure. Make every pedestrian take a road test. If he walks fast and does not slow down at crossings keep him off the streets. The situation is serious enough, the big bums!

Sincerely,
ELMER.

NO TAKERS

The world's a psychopathic case,
And all events confuse it;
I'd give it to the squirrels out
The squirrels would refuse it.

What Next?

There is no stopping Agnes de Mille. She has now made a ballet of the Lizzie Borden murder case. Lizzie's mom and pop had their skulls bashed in with an ax in Fall River, Connecticut many years ago in one of the most gruesome murders of all time. We didn't see the de Mille ballet and don't know how many jumps it took to denote Fall River, which of the gyrations represented Old Man Borden or whether you had to watch the arms and legs of a nimble blond to understand how many trips Lizzie made to the apothecary shop for rat poison preceding the ax murder. But it must have been dainty stuff.

The old Borden case rime can now run:
Lizzie Borden took an ax
And gave her father forty whacks,
And when she saw what she had done
She gave her mother forty-one.

Lizzie somehow beat the rap,

All Done with Wires

By TRUMAN TWILL

Television aerials sprouting from the roofs of palaces, middle class homes and drinking places signal the coming of the newest era of black magic in the United States.

Not so many years ago rooftops were sprouting the now commonplace radio aerials that introduced the golden age of soap, breakfast food, supercharged comment, political wheedling and bird-roosting. Never in history had the birds been furnished such lush roosts or so many of them.

Before that it was telephone and electric wires that kept the country—and the birds—aware that anything was possible in a civilization making a fetish of black magic. As the overhead wires spread over the countryside and through the towns, the thrill was even greater than the later thrill of picking sound out of thin air by hoisting an antennae. Getting a right number was a major achievement.

And before that—before runneth the memory of anyone now living—it was lines of telegraph wires along railroad right-of-ways that signaled the release of men from the bondage of slow communication. The great grandsons of the artists who included telegraph poles and wires in American landscapes now include television aerials—but it's the same idea.

The American way of life is still held together with wires at the strategic places. The only difference is that some of the wires are snoring, leading only from the rooftop to the new furniture radio in the living room.

Ultimately, the wires all will be concealed as they already are in the case of electric, telephone and telegraph wires in congested places. There just wasn't room enough overhead to keep adding them, lest they blot out the sun entirely. But they're still there.

Radio and television aerials, too, will be built into the fabric of civilization's complicated structure. Radio aerials already are concealed in the mysterious recesses of most of the boxes that keep households in touch with all the newest developments in Afghanistan, the soap business, breakfast food factories and the entertainment universe.

America, wired for sound and sight, will be a rare find for archaeologists thousands of years hence when they uncover the skeleton of the civilization that had the heaviest impact of anything that happened between 1776 and the year 5000, or perhaps longer. The wires, being indestructible, will be intact—millions of miles of them threaded through the ruins . . . some one flipped a switch at this point and the sound and sight instantaneously reached the ears and eyes of countless millions from coast to coast. It was wonderful. It is wonderful.

The speaker will be Dr. Hanns Lilje, bishop of Hanover, Germany, spiritual leader of four million German Lutherans. Dr. Franklin Clark Fry of New York City, president of the United Lutheran church, will be moderator for an open forum session Tuesday night. Four seniors of Hamma Divinity seminary at Springfield will be ordained Wednesday night in the host church.

SERVICES TO CONTINUE

Revival services in progress at Second Pilgrim Holiness church will continue next week with Rev. K. C. Vance of Jackson as evangelistic preacher and Rev. Floyd Farnsley of Oak Hill as music evangelist. Good attendance and interest during the first week was reported by Rev. Albert M. Hood, pastor. Tomorrow morning at the worship service following Sunday school Rev. Vance will speak, and Rev Farnsley will be in charge of music and singing. In the afternoon they will be featured at the meeting of the Marion Holiness association at Second Pilgrim church. Young People's hour at 6:30 p. m. will be followed by the evening evangelistic service which will open the second week of the revival effort.

Last night, Rev. Vance spoke from the ninth chapter of Luke and the twenty-second chapter of Matthew, using as text, "Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. What thinkest thou of Christ?" Rev. Farnsley led song service, played accordion numbers and sang, and he and Rev. Hood sang a duet.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN MOVE COMPLETED

Takes Complete Possession of New Church Home.

Today, the final step is being taken by Central Christian church for complete possession of the new church home which was formerly the King family-Etowah estate on Mt. Vernon avenue. The congregation is now ready to occupy the east side of the building just vacated by the Hoover Brown family. A change from the former Central Christian church building on West Church street to the present place was begun last May when the congregation voted to purchase the estate for an enlarged program of worship, Christian education and social functions. Nov. 1, the church moved into the west half of the building formerly occupied by the Ray King family, with the provision that the rest should be turned over to the congregation May 1, 1948.

Rev. Eldred Johnston, pastor, explained the new arrangements as follows. The worship services will be held on the newly occupied side. Other changes resulting from the move include the Junior and Intermediate department classes, formerly meeting in the basement to occupy rooms on the second floor of the east side, the rooms formerly used as a sanctuary, made into a lounge and social parlor; the Men's class, the Jessie Buckley class, and the Loyal Women's class, the Felhochee class, and the Alpha Delta class moved over to the east side. The Junior-Intermediate department assembly will be held on the west side on the main floor.

He stated also that changes are being planned for the yard to the rear of the church. One section will be set aside for recreation. The church has adopted the policy of opening the formal gardens to the public. Signs reading "Enter-Rest-Pray" will be placed on each gate, and "It is hoped that the public will use the gardens as a place of religious retreat and meditation," Rev. Johnston said.

Club Federation Sets Observance Of Fine Arts Day

A HALF century of activities in club and civic affairs of Marion will be rounded out by the Marion County Federation of Women's Clubs with annual observance of community fine arts day Monday afternoon and an anniversary dinner in the evening. As in former years the fine arts day is open to the community and it is the hope of the sponsors that residents of the city will join them for the occasion at the Federation Home. The anniversary dinner, when past presidents will be honored, will be held at Hotel Harding in the evening. Reservations for the dinner may be made with Mrs. Lewis Uhl, ticket chairman, until 10 a. m. Monday.

Mrs. James Ralston, fine arts chairman of the federation for the last two years, is general chairman for the fine arts day and she is being assisted by the various committees. Guests at the tea in the afternoon at the Federation Home will be received by hostesses in costumes of half a century ago. There will be exhibits of costumes, chinaware and other articles of 50 years ago, and as in former years there will be a flower exhibit. Clubwomen are asked to bring table settings and in addition are to supply their own card tables and equipment. Displays will include the art work of pupils of the public and parochial schools and there will be a showing of pictures of charter members of the various clubs in the federation. Exhibits will include furniture, (not too large pieces) jewelry, pictures and other displays of interest. There will be a musical program in the afternoon and at 4 o'clock the piano presented to the federation by Miss Florence Durfee, will be dedicated. The afternoon program begins at 2:30 o'clock.

The Federation Home will be open Sunday afternoon for clubs to place their exhibits. All exhibits are to be placed at that time, with the exception of the flowers which can be placed Monday morning.

State and district officers will be present for the day. Past presidents will be given special recognition at the banquet and there will be a history of the federation given by Mrs. W. N. Harder, a past president of the local federation and also of the state federation. Completing this part of the celebration will be music by Miss Alfela Zachman of Columbus, voice, and piano numbers by Mrs. John L. Lacey and Mrs. H. K. Mouser. Winners of the scrapbook and literary contests also will be announced at this time.

United Taft Support Urged by Cong. Smith

Special to The Star

GALION, May 1—Congressman Frederick C. Smith of Marion asked united support of voters for all delegates pledged to Robert A. Taft, before the Women's Republican club here Wednesday. Dr. Smith was introduced by Mrs. W. W. Wheatcraft.

Even though there is a possibility that Sen. Taft may not receive the nomination for president at the GOP convention next summer in Philadelphia, Dr. Smith believes it is necessary that the Ohio delegates be united for him. Dr. Smith, a candidate for the GOP renomination for Eighth district congressman, urged that voters come out and vote primary day next Tuesday.

After his brief address he left to address a similar gathering in Bucyrus. His time was short, for he expected soon to return to Washington.

Anniversary Dance Held by Club Co-Ed

Between 250 and 300 high school pupils and recent high school graduates attended the anniversary dance held by Club Co-Ed, the city's young people's club, Friday night in the club rooms at the YMCA in observance of the fourth anniversary of the opening of the club.

The rooms were recently redecorated for the occasion by the sponsors of the club, the Y's Men's club, and colorful streamers decorated the rooms.

Music for dancing from 9 to 12 o'clock was by the Ohio Wesleyan campus band. During the intermission, a large anniversary cake was cut by Jacqueline Gifford, president of Club Co-Ed Council.

During the evening, open house was held and a number of interested persons were greeted at the club and conducted through the clubrooms.

D. of U. V., Richwood Tent, Has Observance

Special to The Star

RICHWOOD, May 1—The Mary Morris Husband Tent No. 97 of D. of U. V, celebrated its twenty-first anniversary Thursday night. Mrs. Martha Jeffreys, president, conducted short business meeting, and there followed a program of readings by Mrs. Margaret Blake, Mrs. Jay Evans and Mrs. Florence Davis. Miss Ward of Prospect played a group of accordion numbers, Mrs. Robert Sanders gave a piano solo, and accompanied a vocal trio by Nancy Evans, Danny Sanders and Beverly Marine.

Greetings, written by Mrs. Rella Boggs, were read by Mrs. Blake. Visitors were present from Marion, Mt. Gilead, LaRue and Prospect.

FORMER RICHWOOD GIRL WED IN TOLEDO CHURCH

Miss Joan Kyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Lapp of Toledo, became the bride of Kenneth G. Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marshall of that city, in a ceremony read Saturday, April 24, in Trinity Episcopal chapel at Toledo. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Arthur W. Hargate before an altar decorated with white stocks, palms and lighted tapers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of lustrous ivory satin fashioned with a fitted bodice and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full skirt swept into a circular train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms and she carried a colonial bouquet of frexia and daisies.

Mrs. W. Wilson Mowery of Richwood, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an aqua crepe gown with pink mitts and a net hat. Her bouquet held pink sweet peas caught with satin streamers.

John W. Marshall served as best man for his brother and ushers were William Dowell and Dorman Godwin, of Toledo.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lapp chose an aqua dress with matching hat and wore a corsage of pink camellias. Mrs. Marshall wore a print ensemble and her flowers were gardenias.

A reception at the Hillcrest Hotel followed the ceremony and later the couple left on a wedding trip. For travelling the bride wore a blue ensemble with fuchsia accessories and an orchid corsage. Upon their return they will make their home in Lima where the brideeroom is associated with Dun & Bradstreet, Inc.

The bride was graduated from the Richwood High school and is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winter of Richwood.

Attending the wedding from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Winter, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mowery and son, Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Max Robinson of Richwood, J. Ray Hickey of Cincinnati, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cumminss of Cleveland, Dr. and Mrs. N. Sifritt of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Berwanger of Oak Harbor, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Donald F. Marshall of Pittsburgh.

Instructions on How To Make a Miter-Box

The amateur home mechanic, or the homeowner who likes to putter around the house making repairs and doing odd jobs, is usually a great admirer of the skilled craftsman or master-mechanic. As a rule, he does not know that much of the skill he admires is made possible by the proper use of certain tools and equipment, nor does he realize that his own work would be far better if he made use of them himself.

One of the simple and elementary pieces of equipment used by every carpenter is the miter-box. With the help of this small device, the wood worker can cut angles, miters and cross-cuts with precision accuracy, and can make picture-frames, screens and cabinet-work which will have accurate well-fitted corners. There is nothing amateurish about a simple job in wood, when the miter-box is used.

You can make your own miter-box by purchasing three feet of four-inch by one-inch finishing strip, cutting it into three equal lengths, marking it as directed here and nailing it together.

The first step in making a miter-box is to mark off the strip into three one-foot lengths and cut them straight across, thus producing three equal pieces. Take one of these, which will form the bottom of the miter-box, and draw an accurate square four inches on all sides, in the center of it. Next draw a line from corner to corner of the square so that you have an accurate cross. Next, place the marked piece flat on the table or bench you are working at, stand the other two pieces up against it and nail through them into the edge of the bottom piece as illustrated.

The next step is to carry the corner lines up from the cross on the bottom and mark across the top edge of the sides. You then cut a slit down through the side pieces and your miter-box is ready to use.

You can draw a line squarely across the bottom of the miter-box near either end, saw down through the sides, and you will have an accurate guide for cross-cut sawing.

FIRST AID TO AILING HOUSE

—By ROGER C. WHITMAN—

Scratched Floors

Q. We have fir floors which, of course, are soft wood. We live out of town and have no sidewalks. Consequently, we bring in a lot of sand on our shoes, which scratches and marks the floors terribly. Even where chairs stand, dents are left, and everything scratches and mars the floors. They look awful. Is there any substance or treatment to give them a harder finish, and prevent all of these scratches and dents?

A. Nothing will make soft wood into hardwood. But you can help the condition by keeping the floors well cleaned and polished with a good paste floor wax. Until you can manage to lay a sidewalk, which is something you might plan for when the weather warms up, keep plenty of rugs in the traffic lanes, and put fibre mats at the front door—both outside and inside—and suggest to your family that they make good use of them. "Leg cups" under the legs of heavy furniture will help prevent heavy furniture will help pre-

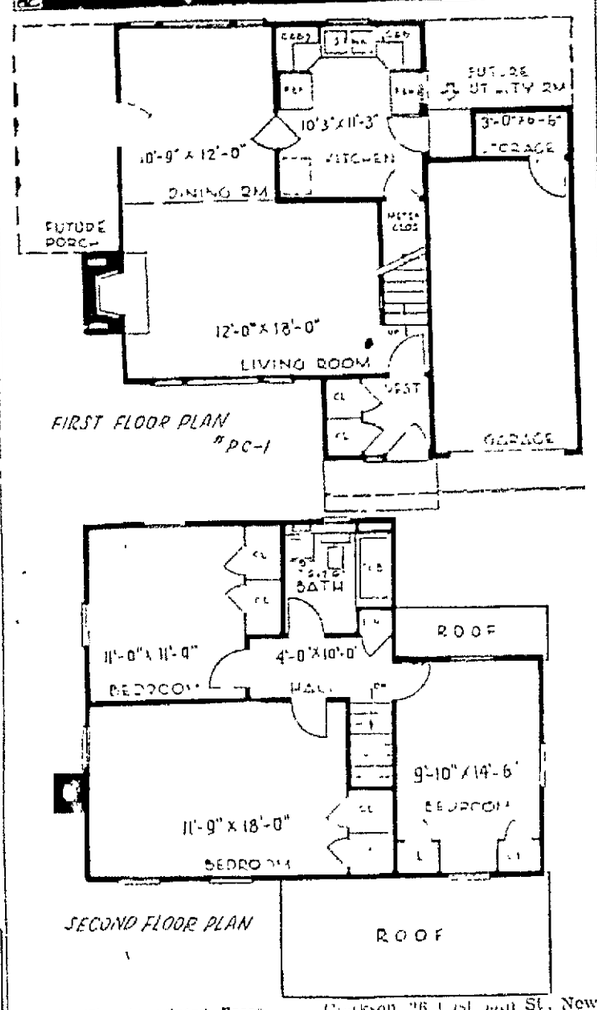
FORMING SOIL DISTRICT

UPPER SANDUSKY—A meeting of farmers and land owners of Salem township has been called for 8 p. m. Monday at Salem school to form a soil conservation district. It is sponsored by Salem grange and by the Vo-Ag and veteran's agriculture classes at the school. Wyandot county agent, S. C. Cashman of Upper Sandusky will speak.

Among the first portable watches were round forms called "Nuremberg eggs."

HOMES FOR AMERICANS



By The Associated Press

A COMMUTER HOUSE of two stories, this dwelling was designed to cut costs. Architects Serge Petroff and Harvey P. Clarkson, 26 East 55th St., New York 22, N. Y., drew this plan for a developer. To meet price requirements of a moderate income family, the house is designed without basement and accommodates a maximum of prefabricated units. The house and garage have a total volume of 18,100 cubic feet. An insulated concrete slab forms the foundation. The chimney is precast at factory. Plumbing is a prefabricated "drainage tree" of copper piping. Heating ducts and complete closets also are prefabricated.

THE GARDEN CLINIC

By VICTOR H. RIES
Extension Floriculturist, Ohio State University.

Q. I live near Dayton and I want to raise a few magnolia grandifloras in this climate. I would like to know if the soil is suitable here the changes that will be necessary, what steps to take for the winters and other related steps to take on my matter. Thank you for any information.

A. Although it is possible to grow the evergreen magnolia magnolia grandiflora, around Dayton, it is not reliably hardy. If you do plant it, it should be in a spot that is protected from sweeping winds. If you will get a small one, say less than four or five feet in height, it might be well to wrap it in burlap for the first couple of winters to enable it to get established. Other than this it will grow in any good well drained soil. However, whenever the temperature gets down to 15 or 20 below zero you can expect winter injury.

Q. I ordered 200 pounds of 4-12-4 fertilizer and the store sent me 200 pounds of sulfate of ammonia. My boy not knowing the difference put all of the 200 pounds of sulfate of ammonia on approximately 5,000 square feet. The grass apparently is completely killed. Would it be possible that it is only browned and will come on again or can we expect it to be completely dead. Was this heavy application too much [illegible] to spread the lawn? [illegible] get rid of the grass [illegible] any suggestions will be appreciated.

A. We normally recommend [illegible] pounds of ammonium sulphate to 100 square feet so you only put on four times as much. A double dose would scorch grass but a few would simply speed it up a bit on the grass. With the quadruple dose, I would not put one day or another. After a heavy rain [illegible] you could be relatively assured that enough of the excess nitrogen would have dissolved and leached into the soil so that grass seed could be sown. However to make sure I would sow just a little patch of a quick germinating seed like rye or red top to test it. At most you would only have to wait for three or four heavy rains to be sure that it would be safe. After the new lawn gets started you sure will have a job to keep it mowed.

Q. Last year we moved into a house that had four forsythias in it. Three of the four bloomed profusely, one the fourth very poorly. This year all four are very sparse in their bloom. What should we do to regain their blooming?

A. It is not uncommon for some forsythias to be sparse or even non-bloomers whereas others bloom profusely. Sometimes, this is due to poor growing conditions such as shade, too dry a location, or competition of too many tree roots. At other times it is impossible to determine why they do not bloom.

I would suggest that you fertilize not only your forsythia but your entire garden with a complete commercial ferulizer such as a 4-12-4 or 4-12-8, using three or four pounds per 100 square feet. This can be applied anytime from now on, but the sooner the better. If the ferulizer gets on the foliage, it should be shaken off if there is not a rain in prospect, so that you do not get any burning.

JUVENILE CLUB SETS MUSIC WEEK EVENT

Schedule Annual Program for Sunday; Open to Public.

The Marion Juvenile Lecture-Recital club will present its annual National Music Week program Sunday at 2 p. m. in the Hotel Harding ballroom. All members of the club will take part. Instead of presenting a guest artist as has always been the custom in the past, the club will feature its 17 members who represent the club at the state festival of the Ohio Federation of Music clubs. The program will be open to the public and there will be no admission charge.

Taking part in the program will be: Lennette Smith, Caroline Hoch, Roger Jamison, Beverly Norton, Connie Bartram, Linda Linscott, Sally Waddell, Alan Dee Hinklin, Marilyn Neville, Patti Kepling, Nancy Dickson, Larie Moore, Marilyn Porter, Marlene Davis, Lowell Gettman, Peggy Dennis, Julia Ann German, Mary Margaret Williams, Patricia Titus, Marilyn Creasap, Bennie Bechtel, Suzanne Rinnert, Martha Ann Wolfinger, Sally Schneider, Anita Porter, Georgeann Zuck, Tommy Hayman, Suzanne McCurdy, William Young, Phyllis Corbin. All will play piano solos.

Piano duets, Susan and James Williams, Linda Weston and Nancy Tower, Sally Barton and Patricia Speck; piano duo, Margaret Zachman and Sallyann Knickle; voice numbers, Ruth Jones, James Jones, Margie Firstenberger accompanied by John Peter Firstenberger (violin), Marjorie Umbaugh, Jon Jones; Evelyn Price and Pamella Neville.

The program committee includes Lenora Dunn, Sarah Meister, Howard Klehm and Donna Wymer, and the flower committee is comprised of Mrs. Marvin Weston and Mrs. D. M. Tower.

Mrs. Ralph E. Mills, counselor of the club, will play the accompaniments.

Report on Conference Heard by Marion Elks

A report on the spring conference at which the local lodge won first place for their marching unit in the parade, was made at a meeting of Marion Lodge No. 32, B. P. O. Elks, Thursday night. The conference was held at Columbus last weekend. The members also discussed the program for the aid and cure of spastic paralysis victims, a project of the state association, and will cooperate with other lodges in sponsoring the work. The project has the approval of state medical organizations and groups as well as lodges and will be one of the major matters of business to come before the state convention in the late summer. Tentative plans also were discussed for sponsoring bowling and golf tournaments later in the year.

Karl Konkle, entertainment chairman, announced a dance to be followed by a lunch Saturday night in the grill. A smoker and lunch followed the business session.

ILLNESS DOESN'T CAUSE BREAK IN VOTING RECORD

G. L. Musselman, 71, of 390 South Grand avenue should be a strong contender for the honor of being the most consistent, long term primary voter now living in Marion county.

Mr. Musselman cast his vote for his choice of candidates for the fiftieth time Monday night when he marked an absentee ballot at City hospital, where he has been under treatment.

Primary balloting has not been in effect in Ohio for 50 years, but prior to that time Mr. Musselman voted in the caucuses which primary balloting replaced.

He first voted in 1898 in a caucus at the village of North Washington, now Dola, then at Ada, Kenton, Lima and began voting in caucus in Marion in 1903 when he came here to work at Hotel Marion. After the caucus was replaced by primary balloting Mr. Musselman continued to exercise his franchise without fail until the present primary for which he has already cast his ballot.

Mr. Musselman disclosed his unbroken voting record Monday to Carl H. Lehner, who assisted him with his absentee voting arrangements with the election board so that he could continue his unbroken record despite an illness which will keep him from the polls on primary election day.

Consisteney is a habit with Mr. Musselman, for he has completed 27 years' service as custodian of the National City bank.

SAYS GAS SHORTAGES COSTLY TO WORKERS

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 1 — The CIO says natural gas shortages last year cost its Ohio members $25,000,000 in pay lost during layoffs.

Similar wage losses, says Jacob Clayman of Columbus, assistant secretary-treasurer of the Ohio CIO, will occur next winter if the power commission orders a curtailment in gas to Ohio distributors.

Clayman testified before the commission Thursday. The federal group is checking into the amount of gas available to Panhandle Eastern Pipeline company, which carries natural gas from the southwest, and needs of Panhandle customers in seven states, including Ohio.

Some gas utilities in other states have asked that Panhandle supplies to Ohio Fuel Gas company and to East Ohio Gas company be reduced.

Cutbacks in Ohio supplies, and Clayman will mean layoffs and "personal privation" to many factory workers.

Clayman said reduction of gas supplies in Ohio would disturb the operating status of existing Ohio plants to the benefit of other areas trying to build up new properties.

The union's survey, Clayman said, showed terse estimated losses.

Nearly $1,000,000 lost to electrical workers at Dayton, Cleveland, Warren and Mansfield, $408,000 to CIO workers in Canton, $50,000 in Marietta; $175,000 to employes of Timken Roller Bearing and Ralston Steel Car in Columbus, $691,000 to Wheeling Steel corporation workers in Yorkville, and $75,000 to other Wheeling workers in Portsmouth.

CONSUL APPOINTMENTS, IN UPPER SANDUSKY HISTORY

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, May 1—A reminiscent phrase "Do you remember when" is replacing more common forms of greetings among Upper Sanduskians as they prepare for the centennial and homecoming celebration here on Sunday and Monday, July 4 and 5.

Remembered times and events include the building of the new race track and grandstand at the fairgrounds in 1921 (the first track was made in 1859 and the first fair was in 1851); the building of First Lutheran church in 1880, St. Paul Lutheran in 1927, Trinity Evangelical United Brethren in 1911, and John Stewart Methodist in 1898.

A more recent big day in Upper Sandusky and Wyandot county history was the state corn field-day husking contest on Oct. 27, 1937. The stalk husking contest was won by the Wyandot county champion, Noble Goodman, who hit the bang board with enough large ears to total 33 bushels, 36 65 pounds of corn for a new record for the state.

Other memories are of the time in 1868 when the P. T. Barnum circus wagons stuck in the mud here, when Dr A Billhardt Sr was appointed consul to Moscow, Russia, by President Grover Cleveland in 1896 when Pietro Cuneo was named consul to Italy by President McKinley in 1904, when the courthouse was built in 1899, when there were two polo clubs, the Black Flay and the Mikado in Upper Sandusky, in 1885, and when there were eight livery stables in town.

PERRY C. HALL ACCEPTS POSITION IN MICHIGAN

Perry C Hall of 510 East Church street has accepted the position of chief engineer with the Blissfield Manufacturing Co at Blissfield, Mich., manufacturers of refrigeration condensing units and unitary systems.

As chief engineer he will have charge of design, production inspection and process procedures and tests.

Mr Hall has been an active member of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers and chairman of public relations and publicity committee of the Marion chapter.

Mr and Mrs Hall and their family came to Marion in 1910 with the Universal Cooler Division. He has been associated with Universal for the last 10 years, formerly as assistant chief engineer and more recently as director of quality.

Granges To Observe Rural Life Sunday

Grand Prairie Grange will observe Rural Life Sunday jointly with Kirkpatrick Grange Sunday, May 2, at the Liberty Methodist church at Kirkpatrick. Plans were made for this at a meeting of Grang Prairie Grange Tuesday, April 27. The program is scheduled for 8 p m and Rev F Melvin Wentz, pastor of the Green Camp Methodist church, will be guest speaker. Both Grand Prairie and Kirkpatrick Granges will present a portion of the program.

Delmar Brewer, overseer, presided for the meeting in the absence of the master, Paul Dasher. An announcement was made of the Marion county Pomona meeting to be held Saturday night, May 8.

A literary program was presented as follows: vocal duet, "April Showers," by Clara Jane Williams and Helen Lyon, an article on Arbor Day read by Mrs. Mildred Burley, lecturer, a violin solo by Miss Ruth Lyon of Bowling Green, O., and movies taken during the past winter in Florida by Mrs R T Thew.

Named to serve on the refreshment committee for the next meeting May 11 were Miss Louise Hinamon, Mrs Edith Hinamon and Mrs Helen Lucas.

CIRCLE REPORTS GIVEN

Reports for the month were given and plans discussed for attending a tea on May 13 at a meeting of Circle No 4 of the WSCS of Epworth Methodist church, Thursday afternoon in the service chapel of the church. A hymn by the group and prayer by the leader, Mrs W R Bogart, opened the meeting. Mrs Charles Fick reported $7 55 in the treasury and Mrs Nellie Kerr announced the sum of $4 62 in the sunshine fund. Mrs Bogart reported an April meeting of the WSCS. The tea, to be held by the WSCS will be at the home of Mrs. Fillmore Young on Mt Vernon avenue. Mrs Ralph Hurr conducted the devotions, reading from Proverbs and the 19th chapter of John and also presented several poems in the theme of "Mother."

MARRIED IN GALION

GALION—Following their wedding here this week Mr and Mrs John C Schill have been on a trip in the south. The double ring ceremony was read at the parsonage of the Peace Lutheran church by Rev Philip E Auer. Mrs Schill was the former Doris Jean Weber. The couple was attended by the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr and Mrs Dale Sanderlin. Mr Schill is proprietor of the Safety Cab company, South Market street and Public square.

HIGH SCHOOL ENSEMBLE GIVES MUSICAL PROGRAM

The Harding High School Girls' ensemble presented a musical program at a meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of Epworth Methodist church Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Martha K. Maner on Bradford street. The group sang "Waltz from 'The Merry Widow,' 'One Day When We Were Young,' 'Alice Blue Gown,' 'Without a Song' and "I'm Wishing," from "Snow White." The ensemble includes Rose Marie Hinamon, Joyce Snyder, Betty Weiser, Nancy Antinony, Dorothy Rhoads, Marjorie Middleton, Mary Ellen Hinamon, Polly Biggert and Yvonne Metzger. Ann Ferguson is the accompanist.

Miss Elizabeth Pace conducted the devotions and the speaker was Robert F. Williams, whose subject was "Make His Way Known—Through Christian Symbols." Using drawings he explained the history of the various symbols and architecture used in all forms of religion.

Refreshments were served by Miss Harriet Goodwin and Miss Lydia Ebel, assistant hostesses. The next meeting will be a joint session of the two Wesleyan Service Guilds of Epworth, May 26. Mrs H V Falor will be guest speaker with devotions by Miss Reta Van Meter and special music by Mrs Robert Broadbeck.

SECONDARY BOYCOTT PICKETING RULED OUT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, May 1—Picketing one employer's plant to make him stop doing business with another employer was held illegal yesterday by a national labor relations board examiner.

The decision by Sidney Lindner is the first in NLRB history holding that any form of peaceful picketing by unions is barred by law.

He said union action to compel one employer to stop doing business with another is a secondary boycott—banned by the Taft-Hartley labor act, hence any picketing to enforce such a boycott is illegal too.

Lindner's ruling closely followed another by NLRB Examiner Martin S Bennett yesterday dealing with picket line violence.

Bennett held that a union which authorizes picketing must take legal responsibility for any violence that may occur on the picket line.

Both examiners' reports become final and subject to federal court enforcement — through contempt actions—unless reviews by the five-man national labor relations board itself are asked by either side within 20 days.

The Lindner decision grew out of a dispute between Local 1796 of the AFL carpenters union and the Montgomery Fair Co., which operates a department store at Montgomery, Ala.

Roger Bacon wrote a book on alchemy.

There'll Be Some "Old Folks" at Your House Some Day

What you do with your money in your early life will help determine how well you live in later years

The happiest homes you see about you are the ones which have established a sound financial footing in which all agree and all participate—living within income with a margin for savings.

Those families look serenely ahead, knowing they will not be caught unprepared for unusual money needs, judicious investments and old age financial ease.

There May Be Little Folks, Too!

Like everything else, babies cost money, and the best of everything is wanted for them by the parents. Here, again, savings will provide. We welcome the accounts of newlyweds and your requests for banking guidance.

FOR COMMISSIONER

A MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS OF MARION COUNTY

It is fitting and proper that upon applying for a job, the applicant make known to all concerned, his experience, education, history and his policies in relation to the position in question, so that they, the taxpayers, may weigh his qualifications and judge accordingly.

Harry Boyd, Democratic candidate for county commissioner, is 34 years old, married, and has two children. He graduated from LaRue High School in 1931 and attended Ohio Northern University from 1933 to 1936, where he studied Government and Law.

He has served as Justice of the Peace of Montgomery Township for seven years, being first elected to that office at the age of 25. He has been a resident of Marion County for 30 years, and at present is engaged in farming in Montgomery Township.

The annual turn over of business in Marion County amounts to about $1,500,000 and Mr. Boyd believes the voters should be careful in making their choice of persons whose duty it is to operate this business.

He pledges himself to absolute honesty, utmost efficiency and promises to serve the interests of all the people and to give equal treatment to all sections of the county.

Mr Boyd is capable of filling the position of County Commissioner to the satisfaction of the greatest number. Tuesday, May 4, is election day. It is your duty to vote. Vote your choice, but be sure you vote.

READY TO GO

Officers of the Building Association Elected and Business Begins Saturday

There was an interested attendance at the meeting of stockholders of the Marion Building, Savings and Loan Co., at City Hall Tuesday evening. The purpose of the meeting was the election of a Board of Directors and how well the stockholders performed that work is seen in the strength of the Board elected.

A ticket had been named consisting of A. H. Klinz, J. J. Hane, E. Huber, J. F. McNeal, T. J. McMurray, T. H. B. Beale and J. Strelitz and barely any opposition was shown, all of them securing over 600 of the 612 votes cast. Though not candidates, T. J. McGruder, H. True, G. B. Christian and Jacob Fribley received some votes.

The board of seven directors of the Marion Building, Savings and Loan Company met at the Farmers' Bank Wednesday evening and organized, electing the following officers:

President—A. H. Klinz
Vice President—T. H. B. Beale
Secretary—E. Durfee
Treasurer—E. Huber
Attorney—J. F. McNeal
Committee on Securities—J. J. Hane and J. McMurray

The office for the company will be in the Masonic block, in the room over Miss Hardy's Millinery store, and will be open to accept money Saturday. The office will be open Friday in order to prepare for starting.

From there he will motor to ... Jersey City for a forenoon and ... ...on speech at the ... ...ical ... ...

We Review the Past with Satisfaction . . .
And Look to the Future with Confidence

YESTERDAY: In 1888 Marion was a promising small town, with every inconvenience known to the day . . . dirt streets, poor lighting, board walks, etc. Many new families were settling in the community. They needed homes, but few had enough money to finance their construction. It was early in that year that a group of prominent businessmen organized The Marion Building, Savings & Loan Company. The purpose was to accumulate funds from the savers to be loaned to others for buying and building homes. At the end of the first year's operation, total assets of the Company amounted to a little more than $40,000, and Reserves only $101.92. Since those early days, thrift has been encouraged by higher than average earnings, paid to the savers each six months without interruption, and many thousands of Marion people have been enabled to acquire debt free homes.

TODAY: Although the location has been changed three times, and in 1935, the Company began operating under a Federal Charter, and changed its name to the Marion Federal Savings and Loan Association, the basic principles remain the same—that of providing a safe place for savings, and the most modern and economical home loan plans available. Modern facilities have been provided for your convenience, and all accounts insured to $5,000. Total assets now amount to more than FIVE AND A QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS and RESERVES MORE THAN $500,000.

TOMORROW: Your patronage, and that of your forefathers has been responsible for our steady growth and increased ability to serve you. It is our intent to do all in our power to continue to further this spirit of progress you have made possible. We value your friendship highly. Without such friendship and cooperation it would be virtually impossible to state "Today is our Sixtieth Anniversary".

The Present Officers and Directors.

New York Stock Quotations

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 1 — Leading stocks again backed down from recent highs in today's market.

There was no tendency to unload shares at any price—the movement was more a slow extension of this week's trading pattern in which pivotals retreated while special groups advanced.

As in recent sessions, a few of the oils and aircrafts found demand at higher prices today. Lealings maintained a fairly active pace.

Sagging at times were U. S. Steel, Chrysler, New York Central, American Woolen, Union Carbide, Dow Chemical, Phelps Dodge, Southern Railway and Philip Morris. Some of the liquors again dipped narrowly.

Tri-County Leagues To Meet in Waldo Sunday

A meeting of the Tri-county Federation of Luther Leagues will be held Sunday afternoon and evening at Waldo, with the league of St. Paul Lutheran church there as the host group. Approximately 200 delegates from various Lutheran churches of the area are expected to attend. The afternoon session will open at 3 o'clock. Rev. Carl Oberderfer, missionary on furlough from India, will speak. Following, supper will be served to the young people at the high school building by women of the host congregation, and a motion picture, "March of Faith," portraying relief work in Europe, will be viewed. At 8 o'clock, the film will be shown at the church for the entire congregation, Rev. S. C. Long, host pastor, stated.

VIEWS OF COMING ATTRACTIONS AT THE THEATERS

"Unconquered" Tops Program at Palace

"Unconquered," the technicolor epic starring Gary Cooper and Paulette Goddard, has been returned for showing here and is now running through Monday at the Palace theater.

Produced by Cecil B. DeMille and based on a novel by Neil H. Swanson, the picture tells the pre-Revolutionary story of the men and women who braved death for freedom's sake.

Featuring Howard Da Silva, Boris Karloff, Cecil Kellaway and Ward Bond, "Unconquered" tells the story of a man who freed a bond slave and found himself in bondage to her, and of another who sought to conquer a country and was himself conquered by it.

Tuesday, the third in the Marion Concert association series will be presented.

Tuesday morning a special show for ladies only will be held with Alano Dass, world famous psycho-mentalist, as the feature attraction. Mr. Dass is appearing at the Palace in two shows daily through next Thursday. On the screen at the Tuesday morning show will be "The Adventuress", starring Deborah Kerr.

Opening Wednesday will be Frank Capra's "State of the Union" starring Spencer Tracy, Katharine Hepburn, Van Johnson, Angela Lansbury, Adolphe Menjou and Lewis Stone.

"State of the Union" tells of the story of a black horse candidate for the White House whose principles of integrity are supported by his wife but come close to being sidetracked under the influence of the owner of a chain of newspapers.

VIVECA LINDFORS AND DENNIS MORGAN are co-starred in the suspenseful romantic drama, "To the Victor," which is now being shown through Thursday at the Ohio theater.

Ohio Features Pictures Filmed at Beachhead

"To the Victor," photographed against a Paris and Normandy background and co-starring Dennis Morgan and the new Swedish star, Viveca Lindfors, is now being shown through Thursday at the Ohio theater as the feature attraction.

Actually photographed on the famed Omaha Beachhead, "To the Victor" is the story of an American who stayed behind in Europe after the Army returned home. Presented in the film are Paris gang wars, liberation entanglements and romance and it tells of two people caught up in a net of postwar intrigue.

Opening Friday to run for seven days will be the stirring romantic drama, "Winter Meeting," which stars Bette Davis and James Davis.

Adapted from a novel by Ethel Vance, "Winter Meeting" is set against New England. Bette Davis is seen as a New England poetess who, at a party meets a young returned Naval hero, Slick Novak, played by James Davis. Strangely attracted, the two discuss their problems at the poetess' country place one weekend. Bette has for years blamed her mother for her father's death, and James, while wanting to enter the priesthood, has been troubled by the fact that he had heedlessly sent his submarine crew to its death though he himself had been captured and had lived through the war.

They fall in love, and they part after an argument, but they meet again later.

"High Tide" Starts Week at Joy Theater

"High Tide", starring Lee Tracy, Don Castle, Julie Bishop and Anabel Shaw, will be the attraction Sunday and Monday at the recently opened Joy Theater, located in Oakland Heights and formerly known as the Oakland theater.

Tuesday and Wednesday the film showing will be "Able's Irish Rose" with Michael Chekhov, Joan Dru and Richard Norris.

A color cartoon and the latest news are included in the selected short subjects.

Lana Turner On Marion Theater Bill

"Green Dolphin Street," starring Lana Turner, Van Heflin, Donna Reed and Richard Hart, will be the main attraction of a double feature Sunday and Monday at the Marion theater.

It is the story of two sisters, Marianne and Marguerite, daughters of an aristocratic family. When Marguerite, the youngest, played by Donna Reed, falls in love with William Ozanne, played by Richard Hart, Marianne becomes determined to have William for herself and she gains him a berth in the Royal Navy to make a gentleman of him.

A misadventure in China forces William to miss his ship and he becomes a successful lumber dealer in New Zealand in partnership with a mysterious adventurer, Timothy Haslam, played by Van Heflin. William then sends for Marguerite to become his bride, but Marianne arrives instead and he is intrigued into marrying her instead of the sister he really wants.

Completing the billing will be "Stepchild", starring Brenda Joyce and Donald Woods.

Tuesday through Thursday the films will be "Son of Frankenstein" and "Bride of Frankenstein", both starring Boris Karloff.

Roland Winters is the star of the first, "Docks of New Orleans", which will be shown Friday and Saturday. The other film in the double feature will be "Riders of Lone Star" with Charles Starrett and Smiley Burnette.

At Drive-In Theater Betty Grable Movie

"The Shocking Miss Pilgrim," photographed in technicolor and starring Betty Grable and Dick Haymes, will be shown Sunday through Tuesday at the Marion Drive-In theater located on route 23, two miles north of Marion.

Billed as the feature attraction for Wednesday and Thursday is "Claudia and David," starring Dorothy McGuire and Robert Young with Mary Astor, John Sutton and Gail Patrick.

"Black Beauty," the filmization of the story the whole world has read, will be shown Friday and Saturday. Starred are Mona Freeman, Richard Denning, Evelyn Ankers and Highland Dale as Black Beauty.

A cartoon, the latest news and selected shorts are shown with each feature attraction.

Loretta Young In Star Role at State

"The Farmer's Daughter," the picture in which Loretta Young won her academy award this year, will be shown Sunday and Monday at the State theater as the feature attraction. Starred with Miss Young are Joseph Cotten and Ethel Barrymore.

The story is laid against the background of an exciting congressional election and revolves around the political adventures of Katie, a young farm girl, after she enters the employ of young Congressman Glenn Morley and his mother as a maid.

Completing the billing will be "Land Rush," starring Charles Starrett.

The double feature Tuesday and Wednesday will be "Breakfast in Hollywood," starring Tom Breneman and Bonita Granville, and "Breed of the Border," with Bob Steele.

Lawrence Tierney and Marion Carr are the starring players in "San Quentin," which will be the feature attraction Thursday through Saturday. "Arizona Trail" with Tex Ritter will complete the double billing.

Marion Cubs, Idle Today, Open 2-Game Series with Portsmouth Tomorrow

Win Over Richmond Puts Cubs in Front with Muncie

By BILL DIEM

The Marion Cubs, idle today after moving into a first place tie with the Muncie Reds in winning their third game in four starts at Lincoln park, 13 to 7, from the Richmond Braves last night, will open a two-game series at Portsmouth Sunday with the youngest member of the eight-team Ohio-Indiana league.

The Portsmouth Athletics, knocked out of the loop's first place by Zanesville, 9 to 2, last night, ended deadlocked with Newark in a 10-inning affair in their initial start, but won their next two games

The Cubs will play a two-game series at Springfield Tuesday and Wednesday before returning home next Thursday for a return pair with the A's.

Drives in 5 Runs

The Cubs' Bill Bohlander, who many will say is a dead ringer for looks with Dwight Maxhimer of last year's edition of the local ball club, led the attack upon the Richmond Braves last night, clubbing in five runs and rapping out three sharp singles in five trips. The 18-year-old righthander from Phillipsburg, O., who came here as a second baseman, now has hit safely seven times in 17 trips for a .412 average and leads the Cubs in runs batted in with seven.

The Cubs, though outhitting the Braves only 9 to 8, hit where it counted, leaving but five men stranded in the wild free-scoring affair.

In the first inning, the Cubs counted two runs on two walks and singles by Pete Schnepf and Bohlander, and they got to Braves' pitcher Bill Foster for five hits and five runs in the second.

Tom Gatts and Nick Alivojvodick singled to open the Cubs' second, George Hansen popped to the pitcher in attempting to bunt, and Schnepf singled Gatts home. Manager Zeke Bekeza singled to left field sending Alivojvodick home and Schnepf crossed the plate when the Braves' leftfielder bobbled the pickup, Zeke moving to third. Bohlander brought Bekeza home with his second safety, stole second and came home on an error.

Two More in 4th

The Cubs counted two more runs in the fourth with the aid of an error, a hit batter, a sacrifice, a wild pitch and an infield putout.

In the sixth, two walks, a wild pitch and singles by Bohlander and Kenneth Ostrander scored three Cub runs off relief pitcher Jack Flannigan, who had come in in the fifth.

Richmond counted a run in the second on a hit, an error by Hansen, and a successful double steal.

Three Braves crossed the plate in the third when Alivojvodick walked two, allowed two hits, tossed a wild pitch and when the Cubs allowed a stolen base and made a miscue.

The Braves made an orthodox run in the seventh when Bob Fruciano doubled and Bob Brown singled, and in the eighth they scored twice on a single, a walk, and a triple by John Pearston.

Manager Bekeza took over the mound chores in the ninth after Alivojvodick had walked one and hit Jack Reagan on the shin with a fast ball, and Zeke set them down in order.

Pete Schnepf arrived on first five times and scored four times. He singled twice, walked twice and reached first on an error.

Lefty Si Pavkov, who blanked the Muncie Reds on three hits in the opener, will be on the mound against the A's tomorrow

Paid attendance was 727.

OUT AT THE PLATE — On a hit and run play, Ken Keltner, Cleveland third baseman who tried to score from third is checked at home plate by Brownie catcher Moss. In the third inning of their game in St. Louis, April 29, pitcher Bob Lemon tapped to pitcher Cliff Fannin who tossed to Moss at home for the out. Umpire Red Jones is calling the play and the Indians remained undefeated by beating the Browns 5-2. (AP Wirephoto).

Big "Bobs" To Face Detroit

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 1 — Manager Lou Boudreau had his "one-two" pitching punch primed for the Detroit Tigers today as the unbeaten Cleveland Indians returned home for a two-game series with the hapless Bengals.

The two "Bobs," Feller and Lemon, have hurled four of the Indians' six straight victories and Feller contributed to a fifth by his relief appearance against the Chicago White Sox last Monday.

Feller takes the mound today and Lemon will face the Tigers tomorrow.

According to Boudreau's present plans, Feller and Lemon will pitch the second and third games of the series with the Athletics in Philadelphia next Wednesday and Thursday. They both will face the Boston Red Sox over the weekend and they both may twirl in the three-game series against the Yankees in New York.

The revised hurling schedule was caused by postponement of yesterday's game in St. Louis against the Browns because of "rain." Actually, a half hour before game time when the Tribe caught an early tram for Cleveland, the skies were overcast, but the field at Sportsman's Park was "dry as a bone."

SOFTBALL GAME SCHEDULED

Company C of the National Guard will play the Huber softball team in a practice game at 6 p. m. Monday on the Crystal Lake diamond.

Marion County Track Meet To Be Held At Prospect Next Wednesday, Saturday

Marion County track men from Caledonia, Claridon, Pleasant, Prospect Green Camp, Martel, Morral, New Bloomington, Waldo and Kirkpatrick high school's will get together next Wednesday and Saturday at Prospect in the county's annual two-day track meet.

In addition to the high school teams, junior teams from each of the schools' junior high's with the exception of Kirkpatrick will be entered in the meet

Principal aim of this year's entrants will be to end a three-year drought in record-setting, with Gene Fleming, shot putter, of Caledonia furnishing the strongest threat to the existing 46'-3" shot record, established by Kelly of Caledonia in 1940

Fleming has hit 47'-3" (Western Relays) and 48'-½" (at Prospect), in bettering the existing record on at least two occasions this year.

Paul Drake, also of Caledonia, is on a par with Fleming in shot competition and is a threat in the 220-yard dash

Charles Muyers of Pleasant in the 100, 220 and broad jump is a promising record breaker, and Blanebolt of Martel, Dickason of Claridon, and Hilborn of Morral show promise in the 120-yard high hurdles with marks of :17.1. The record is :17 seconds, which was set by John Cusick of Pleasant in 1944.

His record in the 120 high hurdles is the latest change to be made in the track events, and his mark of 11'-1½" record in the pole vault in 1942 is the latest change in field events.

The oldest mark is that established by D. Almendinger of Prospect in the high jump way back in 1934 in the first year statistics were kept when he cleared the bar with a leap of 5'-8".

Officials for this year's meet will include Paul Keller, starter; George Reed, clerk; Merton Porter, head timer; Dale Porter, head judge; timers, Howald and Roetger; judges, Cochran, Thomas, Alexander, McFarlene and Halley; shot put, Weston, D. Porter and Howald; pole vault, Demora; high jump, Alexander; discus, Bernow, Lust and Thomas; broad jump, Wright, Hill and Bloker. Gene Kessler will be in charge of weighing discus and shot, placing hurdles and lining track lanes. A coaches meeting will be held at 9:30 a. m. Saturday.

Reds Arrive For Buc Series

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, May 1 — The Cincinnati Reds, riding on an even keel after eight games in their home park, arrived today for a three-game series with the Pirates. The series includes a doubleheader tomorrow.

The Reds hold a 4-2 advantage over the Buccaneers, the margin being the National league opener played at Cincinnati. The Reds and Pirates split a four game series played there last week.

The St Louis Cardinals slapped a 13-7 defeat on the Reds yesterday. A seven-run barrage in the seventh put the Red Birds in front 12-5 and gave fireman Harry Gumbert his first loss of the season. Gumbert has been credited with three victories in relief rolls.

The Reds used five pitchers, but couldn't stop the Cards. Joe Garagiola capped the Cardinal's 17 hit attack with a grand slam homer off Gumbert. Stan Musial also got a round trip blow, his second in two days.

Impressed With Brown's Clinic

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, May 1 — John (Ox) Dagrosa, Temple university line coach and former Holy Cross head football mentor, approved the Cleveland Browns' third annual grid clinic today as the "biggest thing of its kind."

"This leaves me a little dazed," said Dagrosa last night after Coach Paul Brown and his aides finished diagramming some of the plays which brought the Clevelanders two straight championships in the All-America pro football conference.

"Imagine a gang of football coaches (more than 1,100) flocking together for a clinic like this," said the ex-Holy Cross tutor. "It's the biggest thing of its kind I've ever seen.

"This Cleveland Browns organization reminds me of big industry," he continued. "Paul Brown has set up his system on a 'production basis' all down the line. He has brought into professional football something the pro game never had before—complete organization."

Fritz Howell, Ohio Associated Press sports editor, was toastmaster at the opening session of the Browns' two-day clinic yesterday.

MARION, MUNCIE RULE LOOP ROOST

By The Associated Press

Marion and Muncie ruled the Ohio-Indiana league roost today with three victories and one defeat apiece.

Marion climbed to the first place tie in the Class D baseball circuit standings with a 13 to 7 victory last night over Richmond.

The Cubs punched out five hits for five runs off pitcher Bill Foster in the second inning after nicking him for three markers in the first frame.

Muncie pulled to the top from second place by bowling over Lima, 8 to 6. Harold Ensley who opened for Muncie walked ten and fanned ten in six and two-thirds innings.

Zanesville went into a second place tie with a 9 to 2 pasting of Portsmouth's erstwhile leaders. The Dodgers gathered 12 hits—one a homer—to whip the Athletics. Rudy Antonetz hit a round tripper in the third round with one man on base. It was part of a four-run spree.

The defeat sent Portsmouth tumbling into a three-way tie with Zanesville and Springfield for second place.

The Giants made second place in the standings by defeating Newark 9 to 7 after a tenth inning rally on a Newark error, a sacrifice and a single.

Marion Rapid Transit Scores 2562 in ABC

Marion Rapid Transit and Buettin Sales of the Palace Recreation alleys and Jim Dugan of the Marion alleys, bowling in the ABC tournament in Detroit this week ended with scores of 2562, 2479 and 2550 respectively in the team event.

In doubles competition, the Maynard Snyder-Jerry Stephenson combination rolled 1130 for the best local score, and Don Penry and Robert Shoemaker hit 1126 for second as both teams ended in the money.

Maynard Snyder was in the money with a score of 587 in single competition. John Kayatin, 1690, and Snyder, 1672, made the two highest scores in all events

Spot Restaurant and Buettin Sales' teams will leave today to participate in the Ashtabula Inter-City tournament.

Golden West Pace To Be Run Today

By The Associated Press

ARCADIA, Calif., May 1—Outstanding harness horses and reinsmen got postward today in the third renewal of the $50,000 Golden West Pace, high spot for the pacers at the Grand Circuit meeting at Santa Anita park today.

Twenty-three horses, including the favored Dr. Stanton, and Jimmy Creed, Forbes Chief, Rudagar, April Star, Indian Land, Grattan McKlyo and others, were entered in the mile and one-quarter race.

Hopeful of a weather break and clear skies, the management expected upwards of 15,000 fans and wouldn't be surprised if it exceeded the 20,000-mark.

American Association Games Rained Out

By The Associated Press

Four American Association afternoon games were scheduled Saturday with Indianapolis opening a three game stand at Milwaukee in the featured weekend series.

Both of yesterday's scheduled games—Louisville at St. Paul and Columbus at Minneapolis—were postponed because of bad weather.

The Indians open at Milwaukee with a two game lead in the flag race with a 12-3 record. Minneapolis is second with 10-5 while St. Paul holds third with 9-6. Milwaukee is fourth with 9-7.

Motorcycle Race Set At Waldo May 9

A "Tourist Trophy" motorcycle race, sanctioned by the A.M.A. and sponsored by the Triangle Motorcycle club, will open the local putt-putt season at the track a mile north of Waldo on route 98 May 9 with 40 to 50 devil riders signifying their intentions to risk life and limb over the tough course.

Harry Bellville of Marysville and Gibson Keller of Upper Sandusky are entered in the race in addition to Art Heck, state motorbike champion.

The men will race for $800 in cash prizes and three trophies which will include novice, amateur and expert. Trial runs will begin at 11 a. m., and the main race is scheduled for 2 o'clock.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

Batting, Stan Musial, Cards—Continued batting rampage with homer, two doubles and two singles in six trips. He drove in four runs in St. Louis' 13-7 win at Cincy.

Pitching, Allie Reynolds, Yankees—Shut out Boston Red Sox with six singles, 6-0.

Billy Meyer, Best Manager In Minors, at Home in Big Time

By The Associated Press

Billy Meyer, long celebrated as "the best manager in the minors" seems right at home in the big time. His Pittsburgh Pirates, only a half game out of first place, are the surprise-of-the-month in the National league.

Although Meyer has a reputation as an expert handler of young players, the 1943 Pirates aren't exactly a youthful club. They do by pitching the first seven innings.

Phil Marchildon pitched Philadelphia into a three-way tie for third place in the American with a four-hit job against Washington, 3-1.

Joe Roseberry Hits .643 for Winston-Salem

Joe Roseberry, local baseball athlete now playing with the Winston-Salem Cardinals in the North Carolina circuit, is reported by his father, Ray Roseberry, to be clouting the ball at a terrific pace.

Mr and Mrs Roseberry and a party which included Mrs. Joe Roseberry were present to see Joe hit a booming triple last Saturday, and saw him rap out a double and two singles in five trips to the plate as the Cards licked Danville, 7-6, Sunday.

Joe at that time boasted a sensational record of 18 safe blows in 28 trips to the plate which figures .643 percent efficiency. He has hit safely five out of the last seven times at bat.

Converted to rightfield this year by virtue of his boomerang stick from his regular role as a pitcher, Joe in his only stint on the mound this year—a seven inning relief job—went the full seven without permitting a hit

WINS WYANDOT MEET

UPPER SANDUSKY, May 1—Harpster High school won the 19th annual Wyandot county field and track meet at Lewis field, near their school, Thursday. The Crusaders scored 68 points to take first place. The Marseilles Bulldogs were second with 52. McCutchenville placed third with 45. Nevada fourth with 17 and Sycamore trailed with 4. Other Class B schools in the county do not have track teams.

HANNA GETS SENTENCE

By The Associated Press

BUFFALO, N. Y., April 30—State Supreme Court Justice George H. Rowe yesterday sentenced Mark A. Hanna III, 39-year-old great-grandson of the late U. S. Sen. Mark Hanna of Ohio, to five to seven years in state prison. The term is to be served after completion of a recently-imposed five-year sentence in federal penitentiary. He pleaded guilty to three counts accusing him of forging his wife's name.

ACCUSED OF MURDER

By The Associated Press

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 30—Two men—Thomas Williams, 20, and Robert L. McKinley, 26—were charged with first degree murder yesterday in the street slaying a week ago of Cyril Runk, 48, Baltimore and Ohio railroad engineer. The two men were accused of being members of a gang that attacked Runk and a companion as they returned from a tavern. Five youths also are being held.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY

By AP Newsfeatures

GEN. MARK W. CLARK, born May 1, 1896, in Madison Barracks, N. Y., led the World War II Fifth Army that captured Rome, first enemy capital to fall to the Allies. He also led an exploit of detective thriller proportions—an undercover tour of French North Africa to gain essential information before the American invasion. After the war he was Commander in Chief of the U. S. occupation forces in Austria.

Julius Caesar was once captured by pirates in the Aegean Sea.
